

Prestigious Junot Guest Comments

Kay & Narcis - Toronto, Canada
14 December 2003

-What a beautiful apartment in the midst of Montmartre! Our stay was highlighted by wonderful walks through winding and hilly streets, good restaurants serving delicious food just around the corner, and convenient places to shop, culminating in the marché by the local Mairie of the 18th.

Buses and the metro were so handy. We felt so at home among the tasteful furnishings and appreciated the comfort.

We look forward to our return!

Lizzy - Switzerland
27 December 2003

-This apartment is great! It's in the most lovely neighbourhood!! Paris is so lovely in the winter and it makes it all the better to have a wonderful apartment.

Anne, Eugene - OR, USA
1 January 2004

-Thanks! What an awesome Christmas week we had. Your apartment was wonderful- can't thank you enough.

Bonne annee!

Aidan, Kate, Katherine & Aine - Dublin, Ireland
18 February 2004

-We all enjoyed our stay- the girls especially enjoyed having both crepes and the metro so nearby and said that the fold out bed is the most comfortable that they have ever slept in!

This apartment is beautifully decorated and a wonderful haven after a busy day exploring Paris.

Ellen - USA
23 March 2004

-A wonderful 4 nights- very comfortable, great neighbourhood! And of course Jen & Geoff- the best tour guides for Paris! Everything was Perfectly Paris! Be back soon. Thanks for everything.

The Van Duyn Family - IL, USA
2 April 2004

-We had a wonderful time here! It felt just like home. The town is beautiful and the people were wonderful. I recommend the bakery on rue Caulaincourt. Thank you so much- this place is perfect! Au Revoir.

The Lee Family - Ireland
8 April 2004

-Thanks very much for the beautiful apartment. It had absolutely everything we needed and was so tastefully furnished. The area is very pretty and has everything you need for a great holiday. We loved 'The Restaurant' on rue Veron- brilliant food and a great atmosphere!

Beatrice - North Carolina, USA
23 April 2004

-I want to add my thanks to you, Gail, for all you did to make our stay here very pleasant. I do feel very safe in the apartment and it was an added bonus to have someone who speaks English to answer our questions. Thank you and may God bless you.

Libby - NC, USA
8 May 2004

-I enjoyed my time of 2 weeks here at avenue Junot. It is a lovely apartment and very comfortable. It is a peaceful neighbourhood. I was never afraid here. Paris is beautiful and full of history. It is a memory I will never forge. Thank you Gail for your kindness to us. We will never forget you and your family and we will keep you in our prayers.

Sile - Dublin, Ireland
14 May 2004

-Thanks Gail for everything- this is the third "PerfectlyParis" apartment I have stayed in and it has been a great pleasure every time. Until the next time- au revoir & bonne journee!

Nick & Mike - San Francisco, USA
28 May 2004

-Thank you for all of the 'little details' that make this apartment perfectly Paris. While we have visited Paris many times, this was our first stay in Montmartre and we were smitten with its charm. Merci bien et nous vous voir encore!

The Younger Family - Charleston, SC, USA
16 June 2004

-We loved the neighbourhood and have spent two wonderful weeks exploring Paris with the children. It was great to come 'home' everyday! Will definitely return! Gail, sorry we didn't get a chance to meet you. I really love the neighbourhood and the apartment was great!! Had a wonderful time.

Mary, David, Elliot & Hannah - Wellington, NZ
18 June 2004

-Gail, thank you so much for all your help during our stay in this truly wonderful apartment. We have had the most superb visit and this is because of a cosy apartment to come home to every night.

Alison & Howard - NFLD & ON, Canada
8 July 2004

-Gail and Preston, thank you so much! Our stay was everything romantic that I had ever conjured up; both in my mind as a child and as an adult. We've had a wonderful trip. It was great to use the language we had learnt in our schooling and reminds one of the values of Canada's bilingual society. Because all of the products we use at home are written in French and English, menus were a breeze! The local wines are fabulous.

Rob & Barb - CT, USA
30 July 2004

-Preston and Gail, today is the day we did not want to come. We've had the most wonderful time in Paris- from the quaint shops and bistros in Montmartre to the world known sites in the centre.

Barb and I both look forward to coming back and hopefully getting to meet you in person, Gail. You have been a great host- especially at the last minute for the rest of my family.

Preston, although we did not get a chance to chat for awhile, you were the perfect gentleman and made us feel as comfortable as if we were back home. All the best to you and the future. We leave with a little bit of Paris in our hearts.

Yok-Sum and Derek - UK and Alberta, Canada
19 August 2004

-Of all the times we've visited Paris, this was the most wonderful accommodation we've ever been in. We're grateful for the comfort and technology. We will be back soon!!!!

Felicia and Cecilia - Canada
21 October 2004

-Thank you so much for everything! My mom and I felt at home the whole time. The apartment is beautiful and very comfortable, by far the best accommodation we've had in Paris. The neighbourhood was perfect, quaint and tranquil but close enough to the hustle and bustle of central Paris. Will recommend to all, and hope to be back very soon!!!!

Joe & Stefan - San Francisco, CA, USA
23 November 2004

-Dear Gail and baby Yasmin, what a great find, wonderful neighbourhood and a perfect way to turn 53. Thanks for everything and all your help to make us feel welcome! Vive La France! See you again.

Lilianne (Montreal) & Farid (London)
09 December 2004

-Dear Gail, It was such a wonderful surprise to enter this charming home. It was an ideal place to spend time in Paris for a romantic weekend with Farid. Also, I must thank Antonia for her kindness and for making us feel welcomed.

Hope to be back again. Merci Beaucoup.

Bob & Wendy - Oxford, UK
11 March 2005

-Merci pour une bonne vacance! The Charcuterie Thillerot in rue Lepic is fantastic for takeaway food. We had an incredible week in Paris. Read the guide books before you visit the Louvre and the Musée d'Orsay- it will save your legs! The weather for March was perfect. We look forward to seeing you all in London in 2012!

The Gibson Family - MA, USA
25 April 2005

-We had such a great vacation in Paris, partly because this is France and partly because the location of the apartment being so convenient! I think we are only 5 minutes away from a restaurant in any direction. Montmartre is so beautiful and intimate that it was easy to fall in love with. The apartment itself was very charming and nicely decorated, and the fold out couch was even more comfortable than the ones in the hotel we stayed in the first night.

Thanks so much for a spectacular trip!

Ann & David - East Lansing, MI, USA
29 May 2005

-What a beautiful place to be- we even feel somewhat 'local'. Everything was wonderful in the apartment- so wonderfully furnished and tastefully done. Thank you so much for your hospitality. It was fun meeting you and we look forward to another visit.

Linda, Ian, Colin & Emily - MA, USA
29 June 2005

-Rather than waiting for the end of our trip, I am writing at the beginning. Today our twins turn 7 and tomorrow our daughter turns 16. Paris is a wonderful spot for a sweet 16 birthday! The apartment is lovely and I like the quiet location. And the bed and sofa bed are very comfy! Also, thank you so much with your help finding an English speaking sitter for the boys so Emily and I could go out for her birthday dinner. I hope to be back soon.

Pam & Martin Edinburgh, Scotland
12 July 2005

-Many thanks for a wonderful stay in Prestigious Junot. The apartment is very well appointed and in a great position. I loved the area of Montmartre already but now love it more having stayed in it and explored it more. It was good to have a home from home here- this is the first time I have booked an apartment in Paris. Thanks for making booking so easy and at quite short notice. Thanks also to Darci and Teddy for being so helpful when we arrived and getting the apartment ready. We've had a great trip for my husband's 36th birthday- but 3 days is too short a time here and in Paris... we will have to return!

Marja - Finland
16 July 2005

-Thank you for making this an unbelievable holiday in Paris. Maybe next summer we will be back!

Sophie, Leo, Will & Alicia - Australia
2 August 2005

-We loved Paris and your apartment. Thank you for making our stay so special! Everything we needed was right here and it was so comfortable... making us all feel just like home! Also, it was in a great position- Montmartre is so charming. Overall we had a wonderful holiday and we hope to return.

The Boganis - Firenze, Italy
9 August 2005

-Our holidays in Paris were beautiful!! In this apartment we are like at home and all my family are worried to go away. The position is great to reach the main monuments and museums and Montmartre is charming like I hoped. Thank you so much and a big CIAO from Bernardo to Yasmin! We hope to return very soon!

The Baharins - Walnut Creek, CA, USA
24 August 2005

-This is our 5th trip to Europe and every time we are here it is hard to leave. We enjoyed our stay here and hope to come back again. Keep up the good work!

Margot, Gary & Louise Queensland, Australia
31 August 2005

-I wish I could think of something original to say about Paris! We have loved our stay in the apartment, which really feels like home. Montmartre is everything I imagined Paris to be- and it is just downstairs! Thank you Gail and Teddy!

PS Everyone- don't miss the Eiffel Tower by night!

Leslie & Bob Portland, OR, USA
1 September 2005

-Thank you for providing such a perfect place to stay. We've always wondered what it would be like to live as ex-patriots (perhaps seeking political asylum?) and now we know that we would get along in Paris just fine! It is so rare to sleep well in Europe- we appreciate the comfy beds!

What a terrific location for everything. We found a lovely restaurant if you're in the mood to splurge a bit: Cottage Marcadet, at the bottom of the stairs below rue Lamarck, around the corner from the boulangerie. We hope to get to meet you in person when we come back!

Nina & Jonathan - Bar Harbor, ME, USA
16 September 2005

-A joy to be 'welcomed home' to Paris. Once again, Gail, we cannot thank you enough. You will have to travel to Maine so we can return the hospitality... and cook some homards! A la prochaine.

Judith Cheng
28 October 2005

-Merci beaucoup- votre appartement, c'est très bien!

Duho, Pipi, Jan Wouter & Marylee - The Netherlands
23 October 2005

-We had a lovely time here and the apartment is great!! A la prochaine and mille amitiés.

Max - Minneapolis, MN
14 January 2006

-Wow- the Prestigious Junot has certainly lived up to its name. We have had the greatest time exploring the area. I would love to live on Ave. Junot, it's the Champs Elysées du XVIIIe!

Wanda Sykes-Moore - Dallas, TX, USA
10 June 2006

-Gail, thanks for being apart of my long awaited dream of "Living in Paris". My two weeks alone in Paris and this great village apartment will always be remembered. I was constantly amazed at the total equipment of the apartment and especially the kitchen. This has always been my destination. My niece also loved the third week she spent here too. Merci beaucoup.

The Bradfords - Wellington, New Zealand
4 July 2006

-40, avenue Junot has far exceeded our expectations. What a cosy, well appointed, tasteful apartment. A pleasure to come back to each night after a busy day in Paris. Thank you Gail for your attention to detail. It's the little things that make the difference. Montmartre is simply divine – love the village atmosphere. We will certainly return. Thank you also Preston for the help with the DVD. Hope to meet you both in person the next time. Merci beaucoup – au revoir et à bientôt!

Kathy Lynch & Briohny Clark - Margate, Queensland, Australia
7 July 2006

-What a joy! We all love Paris and this apartment!

Juliette, Lyle, and Ronan Gore & Lindsy Highland –USA
21 July 2006

-Gail and Preston, we can't say enough thanks for offering up this wonderful apartment at literally "last minute"! We have been so happy with this area and the amenities of Prestigious Junot. Despite our run-in with the metro authorities (haha), we had a good time! Thank you also for your help with a taxi for our departure. You are 1st class and that's so hard to come by these days! Best wishes to you and your family!

Linda & Dave Kempster - South Africa
16 August 2006

-We had a wonderful stay in the apartment and really enjoyed Paris.

Debbie & Francois DesRochers - Whitby, ON, Canada
11 September 2006

-My husband and I decided on a return trip to Paris – sans enfant- although last year's trip was great and we had another 'Perfectly Paris' apartment in Montmartre- this trip was really what Paris is all about. After 22 years of marriage (we arrived on our wedding anniversary) Paris lived up to the city of love. We meandered around many neighborhood parks, ate like Parisians and lived like Parisians thanks to Perfectly Paris and its wonderful choice of apartments. Of course Gail not only personally greeted us, but left an anniversary surprise of lovely chocolates and cookies. Gail is truly a spectacular hostess and a very thoughtful person. A la prochaine!

Marne, Peter & Matt - South Carolina & Georgia, USA
October 2006

-Paris, as always, was spectacular! The sights, the sounds, the people, the food... what can one say? The apartment was blissfully quiet (except for the construction and the incident in the elevator – beware it has a mind of its own)! Gail was a wonderful hostess- she handled everything – no surprises upon our arrival! Merci beaucoup Gail. Nous aimons Paris, aujourd'hui, hier et demain.

The Stevenson Family - Southampton, England
26 October 2006

-We had a wonderful stay but unfortunately it ended fast. There are lots of sites to see but I definitely recommend the Eiffel Tower because it's amazing! So thank you very much Preston and Gail for our lovely stay and the apartment was great!

Rachel, Amy and Sharon - Chicago, IL, USA
13 December 2006

-Gail and Preston, thank you for the wonderful apartment. It was fantastic. We (my sisters and I) loved every minute of our stay in Paris!

The Vlossak & Coates Families- Toronto & Cornwall, UK
28 January 2007

-Excellent apartment, comfortable and warm (needed in January in Paris) everything provided, couldn't be better. Best wishes.

Sophie & Leonie Caldecott - UK
4 March 2007

-This is the sweetest, most beautiful little flat and I wouldn't change a thing! Thank you so much, everything is lovely!

Kevin Bothwell – Guelph, Ontario, Canada
17 March 2007

-Wonderful and charming apartment. Stunning city! Fantastic holiday. Thank you so much.

The Rack Family – England
7 April 2007

-The apartment was lovely and we had a wonderful stay. Thank you for making us feel at home in Paris.

Diane & Jon Mistos – Saco, Maine, USA
28 April 2007

-Our trip of a lifetime was made even more special by the location, amenities, and area which is Montmartre and Prestigious Junot apartment. When you are coming to a foreign country and experiencing new ways to do things, it is important that the most basic of needs – a good comfortable home – is not a surprise. We certainly enjoyed everything about the apartment and will return again if the opportunity presents itself. Merci beaucoup Gail and Preston for all your help! Au revoir!

The O'Learys – Santa Rosa, CA, USA
26 June 2007

-We really enjoyed the apartment. It was cozy, in a great location and was just as you described in your website. We hope to return.

The Reeces – Melbourne, Australia
13 July 2007

-We have enjoyed a wonderful stay in Paris. Your apartment suited us perfectly, wonderful location, and all the amenities we required. Paris is everything I expected it to be, and more. We look forward to visiting again in the near future. This is a great apartment and we have really enjoyed staying here.

The Scdoris Family – Portland, OR, USA
17 July 2007

-Our stay in Paris was fantastic! We loved exploring the city and living like Parisians in Montmartre. Being able to return to this wonderful apartment each evening made our vacation truly special. We are looking forward to our next trip to Paris.

The Sameks – Peace River, Alberta, Canada
31 July 2007

-We have enjoyed our brief stay in Paris. Having the apartment to just hang out and do our own thing and the location close to the metro to go and explore Paris was also handy. Thanks for the arrangements for our unexpected delays in getting here. Everything has worked out just fine, unfortunately, it is time to back up and leave.

The Faulkhauser Family – Switzerland
18 August 2007

-Thank you for the perfectly arranged apartment! We had a wonderful time here in Paris.

David & Katharine Newhouse – PA, USA
14 April 2008

-Simply put, the apartment was perfect. It was beautifully decorated, comfortable, and had absolutely everything to make our stay convenient -- and then some. (We even enjoyed the choices in CDs.) The neighborhood was wonderful, including an artisanal boulangerie (the most important thing!) just steps away. We could even walk down to the Saturday morning market at place de Clichy. And Preston could not have been more helpful when we arrived. All that and the apartment was a wonderful value as well! We have already recommended Perfectly Paris to friends. And since our daughter has just bought an apartment on rue de Clignancourt, we know that we will be back many times. You can be sure that, when it is time for the next visit, we will be in touch.

Rebekah, Matthew, Charlotte & Samuel – Pont Aven, France
27 April 2008

-The apartment was great. It's cozy and obviously "big". It was easy to have guests. And the kitchen was adorable! It's just great. The boulangerie, fromagerie, charcuterie and patisserie were all there (just like every other town). The metro was in good walking distance aussi! Even the extra bed (thanks for that) was good, too!

Jim & Debbye – Oklahoma and San Diego, USA
22 May 2008

-I hope everyone sees Paris at least once in their lives! I enjoyed celebrating my 50th birthday seeing all the wonderful sites. My husband and I really enjoyed staying in Gail's flat instead of a hotel. The neighborhood is so nice and pleasant. You get to feel like you are living here which is so much fun. We had dinner down the street at a lovely café with a really nice owner named Natalie. Please give her a try if you are looking for great food and a wonderful owner. We have left her business card for her information. Thank you Preston for your help setting up the car service for us. We ended up taking a taxi to City Rama and made it in time for my dream come true, we took a bus with some very nice people to Champagne France. Wonderful! Please see Champagne (Epernay) if you get the chance. Cityrama does a wonderful trip and the countryside is stunning! My 2 words to describe Paris... massively magnifique!

The Miller Family – Calgary, Canada
27 May 2008

-Great apartment in a wonderful part of Paris. Preston and Gail were both very helpful and the apartment had all the amenities needed for a wonderful stay. Thank you for maintaining a great place to stay on vacation.

The Williamson Family – Knoxville, TN, USA

4 June 2008

-We are overwhelmed with everything! Paris is spectacular – thank you for the use of your “cozy” apartment. We had a great time. Thanks for all your extra help with everything Gail – if we should be so lucky to come again, we will definitely call you. Otherwise will definitely recommend to anyone that asks – we especially enjoyed the movie collection – thanks again for a truly wonderful Parisian experience.

The Jensens – Winnipeg, Canada

9 July 2008

-Dear Gail, the apartment was very nice. Not only did it pass my standards but it exceeded them in almost every way. It amazed me how you prepared the apartment to accommodate every need. Not only was the apartment itself nice but the location was stunning. Being so close to the metro was very convenient for accessing the Musée d’Orsay, the Louvre and near steps from the St. Vincent graveyard and dozens of boulangeries and a market that could accommodate ones needs for weeks. In terms of individual things, I particularly enjoyed the music. It was wonderful to open up one of my new iron maiden CDs and be able to hear the music rather than just admiring the inside sleeve for hours on end. But the highlight of the apartment for me, being 14 years old, was the computer. It was nice to have logged on to MSN and Facebook and talk to all my friends about graduation and other end of the year goodies I missed while I was exploring the wonderful countries of France and Italy.

Aidan, Sharon & Lauren McKillion – Ireland

12 August 2008

-Beautiful place to stay. Great apartment. Preston is extremely helpful and efficient. A nice homely feel about it. An excellent base for touring Paris, on metro and bus. Paris is a truly wonderful place. We would highly recommend this letting agency to anyone, especially Preston and Gail looking after things.

Peter & Nadia Robertson – Mildura, Australia

29 September 2008

-Dear Gail, we found the apartment to be everything we imagined – the perfect base for our honeymoon in Paris. We spent a lot of time in and around Montmartre and Abbesses and enjoyed ourselves thoroughly. We hope to be back in the future – this time we’ll bring the kids! Thanks for your assistance on our arrival, you were a great help.

The Powe Family – Brisbane, Australia

20 December 2008

-Thank you so much for a fab stay. This wonderful apartment made us feel at home. After a big day on the streets and museums it was great to drop by the local markets on the way home and throw together a quick meal in the well equipped kitchen – with everything close to hand. We have loved the Christmas lights, the creperies (especially Nutella); the history; taking time to absorb the Parisian atmosphere, sights and sounds, evensong at Sacré Coeur; the cafés and boulangeries and the cool weather. Nice change from our usual hot sweaty Christmas.

The Netke Family – England, UK

28 December 2008

-We had an enjoyable stay. With record low temperatures outside it was so cosy and comforting in this lovely tastefully decorated flat. We enjoyed the neighborhood, the close and relaxing walks to Montmartre and the proximity to the station. Presence of Internet and free telephone was invaluable since we knew no French. We would recommend this accommodation to our friends.

Christina – Hamburg, Germany
14 April 2009

-Dear Gail, we had a wonderful week at the Prestigious Junot and we don't feel like going home at all so soon. The 18eme is a great place to live and my favorite part of Paris. Thank you for a very thoughtfully equipped apartment (Michelin, computer, 'Guide Rouge', DVDs...) and the uncomplicated process of renting the flat. We'll be back!

Emma and John – Lancashire, England
20 April 2009

-We've had a wonderful relaxing weekend – eating too much as usual! The local bakeries are excellent and we recommend Le Cépape Montmartrois, La Tagine (Moroccan) and the local Japanese. Looking forward to our next visit.

Carolyn – PA, USA
30 May 2009

-It's been a delightful 10 days. So convenient to the metro and wonderful neighborhood and restaurants. Not a bad one anywhere- also the bakeries that I don't find at home.

Dan and Hilary – Chang Mai, Thailand
30 May 2009

-Also had a great time in the apartment in Paris. We would strongly recommend the Café de la Butte, just across the street, and Café Qui Parle, a couple hundred meters down on Caulcaincourt. It is a nice neighborhood to “live” in while enjoying all of Paris!

The Kilburns - Kelowna, B.C., Canada
5 July 2009

-We had a wonderful time in this beautiful, homey apartment. It's in such a quiet neighborhood with a great boulagerie down the street along with some nice shops. Thank you for making us feel at home!

Simon, Sarah, Joseph and Martha – Worcester, England
4 August 2009

-We have really enjoyed our stay in Paris, so glad we rented this apartment. The weather has been fantastic and we have loved everything. Martha's favourite thing was playing in the fountains near the Eiffel Tour and Joseph's was having a cartoon portrait drawn in Place du Tertre. We also all loved our ride on the log flume in the Jardin des Tuileries. Thank you!!

Peter, Tami, Phoebe and James – Sydney, Australia
23 September 2009

-Racing to get to the airport on time! Had a wonderful stay in a fun apartment & great location. Until next time!

Michelle – Vancouver, Canada (Winter Olympics 2010!!)
October 2009

-Thank you again for your kind help, gracious manners and great attention to details. What an amazing, cozy apt. So warm and comfortable on a brisk fall evening. Couldn't have asked for anything more! I hope to return again next year. Each time I come to Paris, I leave a little piece of my heart behind, but take a little piece of this most magically romantic city with me, that is it's beauty.

The Ropers – Dallas, TX, USA
Christmas, 2009

PERFECT!!

Julie Durkin and Pete Ortiz – Cleveland, OH and Los Angeles, CA
5 January 2010

-The Prestigious Junot could not have been a more perfect place for our first trip to Paris! The neighborhood is a wonderful balance between being far enough away from the noise but close enough to all of the action and attractions. The little touches and amenities made it easy to feel right at home. This is definitely a place that we will recommend to all friends and family. Thank you for such an amazing experience!

Helen, Andrew, Pauline and Thomas – Glasgow, Scotland
6-9 February 2010

-We were in Paris to celebrate my sisters birthday. What a wonderful trip. We loved relaxing in our apartment in the evenings after a busy day's sightseeing. Thank you very much.

Kay and Fran – Ireland
10 May 2010

A wonderful week in Paris (the last night an added bonus provided by the volcano!). We enjoyed our time in the apartment – great location with access to cafes, markets, Montmartre, the metro. We walked into the centre most days (Marais District, Latin Quarter, Eiffel Tower, Les Invalides) – it's all downhill and there are wonderful views everywhere. We returned by metro! We'd recommend the Paris Bar on rue Caulaincourt for drinks and good late night food. Also, Lui Insolent, Cepage, Le Zebre were lovely. Have a look at "Amelie" - thanks for supplying a DVD in the apartment. It's a nice souvenir of our days getting lost in Montmartre. We'll be back.

Lesley, Margo, Rita – Baltimore, MD and Savannah, GA, USA
May 29 2010

Wow, what a wonderful trip! Our stay in Prestigious Junot was wonderful. We loved the neighborhood. Easy access to everything. Three of us stayed here. One has been to Paris 12 times. The other two it was their first time. We all really enjoyed living like a Parisian. We highly recommend eating at Chez Marie on rue Gabrielle. We also recommend eating lunch at Cafe de la Paix in the Opera area. Make sure you get a fashion show at Galleries Lafayette! A little note about the pull out couch – you have to pull the two cushions closest to the wall towards you, that's how the bed opens up. Sadly we are leaving today but can't wait to come back. Thanks again.

Nick, Lisa, Allison and Parket – Leawood, KS, USA
4 July 2010

Thanks for the use of the apartment. I am so glad we found you online. For our first visit to France, to Paris, we found it to be mostly conveniently located for all of our destinations – and we saw a lot! The weather was beastly hot until our last evening which made for some rather stuffy sleeping. The bathroom is well, quaint, but I don't think we'll miss it too much. The boulangeries were amazing and the markets very close. We recommend a trip to Versailles – it was stunning. And a day trip to visit the Chateaux in the Loire Valley was a dream come true. And don't miss a dinner cruise on the Seine – it was fabulous! Next time we'll visit sans enfants, 2 bored teens, who had enough art and castles to last them for a good while I'm afraid. Thanks for providing us with a cozy place to return to each evening. Bonne vacances. Merci beaucoup.

Adam and Sarah – Watford, England
September 2010

Bonjour! Thank you for providing such a lovely place to stay, in walking distance of everything we could need. It has been a wonderful vacation in Paris with a great apartment to return to every evening. Thanks for a warm welcome and fantastic service. Hope to stay again soon.

Karen and Deane – Yonkers, NY, USA
3-17 October 2010

Thank you so much for our fantastic pied-a-terre. The apartment had everything we needed and impressed our Parisien friends – how good is that?!! Some of our best moments in Paris were right here on Avenue Junot. We'll be back!

Rick – Northern Minnesota, USA
17 Nov 2010

The last night of an incredible week, despite the challenging weather things would not have been better. The apartment is superb, in a great location and cozy and warm, and very well furnished and maintained. Thank you for your kind hospitality and consideration. I am sure that my friends and family would find this a perfectly great Paris experience and I will recommend it unconditionally. The decorating is very unique and I enjoyed the artwork that was quite distinctive. It is clear that a lot of care and love has gone in this home. Thank you again. Now back to the snow and (real) cold.

Mai and Neil
10 December 2010

this was a warm and inviting apartment in pretty inhospitable weather conditions for Paris at this time of year. We returned out in a snowstorm, sleet and rain – and still managed to enjoy this gorgeous city. Preston was very helpful when needed. The located in Montmartre is great – we were here for the opening of our son's art show and the choice of apartment was ideal.

Now back to sunny (hot) Australia where we will groan about 35C temps and the current floods! I fell over in the ice here and have a black eye to take home as evidence – not something we experience in Sydney. We will recommend your apartment to friends and family!

Au revoir!
