15 May 2017

Our encore visit was absolutely spectacular once again! All was great and congratulations on the new art pieces.

Todd White – USA

21 April 2017

We loved the neighbourhood, and this apartment was great. The 80 bus took us anywhere we needed in town. We loved the apartment. You have done a great job anticipating traveler's needs.

Aisling Gannon – Ireland

11 April 2017

Thank you all so much. We felt extremely well looked after. Stunning apartment in a fabulous city.

Steve O'Connor – Ireland

11 April 2017

Best stay ever!

Sorcha O'Connor – Ireland

11 April 2017

I loved every moment of our stay. I just loved it! I will definitely come back.

Cem Mumcu – Istanbul, Turkey

February 2017

Gail's apartment is perfect for a Paris experience! The location is surprisingly great, the apartment is very cosy and chic and airy. Bright and beautiful. Montmartre is very beautiful to stay. Restaurants around are great. Gail is a very trustworthy and caring host. I would like to stay one more time.

Chris Thomson – Australia

February 2017

This is a fantastic place to stay in a non-touristy part of Montmartre but very close to the touristy bits if you want them. Very close to the metro and the description of the place is spot on. A nice, roomy, quiet, historic apartment in a great part of Paris.

Barry and Holly Strum – Cincinnati, Ohio

October 2016

My wife and I have thoroughly enjoyed our stay at Caulaincourt Charm – a marvellous apartment in Paris and a most magical neighbourhood. Many thanks to Gail and Georgina at PerfectlyParis. We hope to return soon.

Steve and Joanne Power – USA

October 2016

Dear Gail and all, for our 2nd time with you and our 5th time in Paris, this apartment was ideal. We loved Montmartre and this flat is superbly situated and marvellously appointed for traveller's who like to wine, dine, shop and walk. Merci beaucoup, we shall return soon!

Kate Cooney – New York, NY
September 2016

Charming and spacious apartment in the heart of a very local neighborhood. It was the most perfect stay! We adored the (many!) cheese and wine shops on our street. Very close to the line 12 subway line and the bus was right outside the door. Gail was outstanding and provided us with everything we would need, including recommendations and thorough check-in instructions. She made us feel right at home in Paris. The apartment really is more than you could ask for - I highly, highly recommend it. Thank you so, so much for a lovely stay. We really enjoyed the apartment and will be recommending you and Perfectly Paris to friends and family.

Bob and Lotti – Holland
July 2016

We have also stayed for the 3rd time in a PerfectlyParis apartment and this is our 2nd stay here in this fine location. Caulaincourt Charm was again all that we had hoped for, wonderful and perfect. We lived here like real Parisians, shopping downstairs at the fine shops, and ate and drank in very nice restaurants cafés and bars. We once again enjoyed the comfort of this fine apartment, and for us we hope this isn't the last time. A bientot Paris!

Mike & Ruth Miller – California, USA
July 2016

This is our 3rd stay in a PerfectlyParis apartment and let me just say that this was our best stay yet. What a lovely surprise to walk into Caulaincourt Charm and find out it had been recently remodeled and in such a beautiful way. We will be back again. After traveling to the south of France and then to the Normandie region, Paris was a fabulous end to our 3 weeks here. There is so much to see in Paris and never enough time. Thank you Georgina and Gail, you always do a fabulous job

Just wanted to say thank you again for the beautiful apartment. It was our best stay yet in Paris. What a wonderful surprise to walk into a newly remodeled apartment-and so beautifully done. Again, thanks and until next time, au revoir! Or should I say, a bientot!

June 2016

The listing description of the property was accurate. The apartment is very well stocked and furnished. It's comfortable. The wifi is great. The neighbourhood is quiet and residential. Not touristy, but very well located. Almost next door to the Lamarck Metro Station, and the Sacre Coeur and Place du Tertre, are easily accessible on foot. We had great assistance from Gail and her team. Our check-in and checkout was very professionally managed. The apartment itself has a lot of useful information in the form of books and a folder. Montmartre is magical. There is a well-stocked grocery shop in front of the apartment and a really good bakery below.

Shirley Kendrick – USA
May 2016

Another perfect visit to Paris staying in a perfect Paris flat. Everything about renting is made simple and trouble free. We were here with my granddaughter. We highly recommend the toy shop just down the street as well as the ice cream shop across the apartment on Rue Caulaincourt. On this visit we took some time out to see the Museum of Montmartre and found it both charming and informative. The tucked away garden is a gem. The metro is very convenient but we found the number 80 bus great for getting around and seeing Paris from above ground. This neighbourhood had everything we want. We shall return.

Starr & Harry Hinrichs – Iowa, USA
April 2016

We enjoyed so much about our stay in Paris. But if we had to name a highlight, it would be the apartment we rented from Perfectly Paris. We loved the space, location, and the amenities that were provided to make our time special. Gail, I appreciate your availability to answer our questions. You went out of your way to accommodate. We will sing your praises to any one of our friends who wants information on places to stay in Paris. Again, many thanks!

We love everything about the apartment. It's beautifully decorated, well supplied, more spacious than we expected, and located so conveniently to the city. Metro was very convenient. Thank you Gail for all your kindness.

Jeannie Wong and Philip Schmidt – California, USA
01 October 2015

We had a lovely time looking at all the magnificent sights in your beautiful city and home to return again in the future, especially for the cuisine and the best pastries in the world.

Caroline and Damian Horrigan – Seattle, USA
22 August 2015

What a gorgeous apartment! This is our fourth visit to Paris and third time in a PerfectlyParis apartment, and this one is special. It made sitting around and doing nothing so guilt free in this city. Best restaurant that we have eaten at in Paris EVER is Le Coq Rico. Oh the duck! Make reservations or you won't get in (and a word of warning it ain't cheap). Note when visiting in August many of the restaurants are closed. We hope to be back again and it would be nice to come back to this apartment. Thanks Gail for another great stay.

Madeleine Lyons - Ireland
12 August 2015

This is the final evening of the most wonderful ten days in Paris. We will return to this beautiful apartment at the first opportunity. As well as the surprising amount of space, the superbly suitable art and furniture, the homely feel, and the fact that the front faces south, ensures bright sunshine all day. This is a huge plus. The location is wonderful. We travelled most days to places of interest having checked details in the books provided. Some days we just walked around the local area and savoured the real Parisian atmosphere. The local cafés and restaurants were all good, and it was also wonderful to cook at home. We will not stay in hotels in future due to the freedom afforded by apartments such as this.

Geraldine and Eoghan Kenny - Ireland
11 April 2015

This is our second time to stay in this beautiful apartment. We love everything about it and the great location. We recommend staying here and PerfectlyParis to anyone wanting to rent an apartment in Paris. We will be back.

Julius Effenberger – Zurich, Switzerland
April 2015

Alles hat bestens geklappt, Anmeldung, Empfang, Unterstützung, Wohnung, Abreiseablauf: alles liess uns wunschlos zufrieden.

Lorraine and Cheryl – Massachusetts, USA
7 January 2015

Dear Gail, I think this is our 5th time celebrating Christmas and New Year in Paris using PerfectlyParis properties and we have enjoyed ourselves each time. We specifically love this little Caulaincourt neighbourhood. We have had luck with the wine store just outside the apartment to the left. We love the size of the apartment, the location and the ease of getting around the city. We had our last meal at Table d'Eugene – it is the best restaurant we've eaten in and we have promised ourselves that we will eat at least one meal here each time we come to Paris. Thank you Gail and the PerfectlyParis staff for all of your help. We love Paris, Montmartre and PerfectlyParis and hope to return again next year! A bientôt!

Ray and Judy Sheehan – Australia
16 December 2014

For some time now my wife Judy had been planning to have her 60th Birthday in Paris. We chose Caulaincourt Charm from the PerfectlyParis web site. The apartment was our home for a month and it was perfect, large and spacious, bright and sunny, and in a perfect location. Everything you could want is close by from transport to places to eat, and everything you want for the apartment. To Gail and Georgina and the PerfectlyParis team a very big thank you from us. Your help and advice was priceless and was greatly appreciated. It has been the best holiday ever, what a fantastic city! Thanks again Georgina for all of your help! We've had a great time and will recommend PerfectlyParis to all of our friends.

Bob and Lotti – Delft, Holland
14 August 2014

This is the second time we stayed in an apartment of PerfectlyParis and we must say again that your name just "fits perfectly". After a day of walking, eating, shopping, watching, drinking, taking buses and metro's in this wonderful city it's like coming home to this nice apartment. Everything we need and even more, we find here that the atmosphere is fantastic. Thank you so much.

Triona Lillis – Ireland
February 2014

What a fantastic stay we had here at Caulaincourt, so cosy and relaxed. I stayed here with my 15-year-old daughter who also loved it. It was great to come home every evening after a long day of sight seeing. We saw everything in Paris that we could see, and my daughter would like to recommend the garden at the Petite Palais, it was her favourite place. Also we had a delicious traditional breakfast at Coquelicot in Abbesses. Bowls of coffee, large slices of brioche with big pots of jam – delicious!! Merci beaucoup.

Alison and Alastair – South Queensferry, Scotland
19 October 2013

A wonderful stay in a very comfortable apartment. The location is fantastic. Best food this week was eaten at Le Grand 8 on rue Lamarck. Also recommend the restaurant on rue Veron close to Abbesses metro. We really enjoyed Musée Marmottan. A great week, thank you!

Warren and Jenny – Brisbane, Australia
28 September 2013

We have had a glorious 3 weeks here at Caulaincourt Charm. It is way beyond our expectations, and has been refreshing after a 3-week bus tour of England, Scotland and Ireland. We love Montmartre and the local people here. The little wine shop next door has a good range of French wines and the owners are very friendly. If you have the time, you can enjoy a great day at Monet's house and gardens at Giverny. Try and do that before seeing his work "Lillies" at the Musée L'Orangerie. We found the metro very convenient and a cheap way to get around. We love Paris and enjoyed the UK,

Scotland and Ireland but we certainly have a lucky country in Australia and look forward to going home next week.

Grant and Libby – Adelaide, Australia
7 September 2013

The apartment was wonderful. It was to come back after a long and often tiring day visiting the sites of Paris to a spacious and comfortable apartment where we could relax. The library and especially the packet of “City Walks” was very useful and took us to places we may not have seen otherwise. The booking process was extremely efficient and friendly and we will be recommending Caulaincourt Charm as a place to stay. Do buy your metro tickets in bulk as it will save you time.

Christie and Chloe Thorsteinsson – Winnipeg, Canada
9 August 2013

Dear Gail and Preston and the team, beautiful apartment – we will never stay in a hotel in Paris ever again! Returning 2014, hopefully for a longer stay so Gail I will be in touch. Thank you for a wonderful Parisian experience.

Carol Hogan and Tony Patrick – NSW, Australia
27 July 2013

Tony and I really enjoyed our week in this apartment. It is more spacious and comfortable than what we expected – just love the décor! The location is ideal. Compared to other areas we have visited in Paris, it seems safe and has a nice atmosphere. All amenities are close by. While the toilet and shower are relatively small in size, one must expect such things if one desires a “typical Parisian apartment” C'est la vie!

Fred and Jolynn Melvin – Benton, Illinois
10 July 2013

Thank you so much to the PerfectlyParis team and particularly to Gail and Lara. The apartment is so very lovely and your attention to detail, comfort, and helpful suggestions are very much appreciated. This trip was to celebrate our 40th wedding anniversary and we had a wonderful time exploring and seeing the sights. Since this is our first trip to Paris, we of course wanted to see all the sights we read about – we just wish we had more time to simply stay in the Montmartre area and just relax and eat! We did “blow off” a tour one day to further enjoy this area and it's charm, and relax and refresh. It was wonderful to have a pastry shop just outside the door, and fresh fruit around every corner. We speak very little French, but were able to get by nicely with the helpfulness of others. Thank you for a lovely time!

The Schindler Family – Australia
6 July 2013

We have had a lovely time, we wish we had longer. Off to Rome today before heading back to OZ next Saturday. Good size apartment, after London last week.....a larger shower would be nice. Good location to Metro and restaurant. A majestic and historically significant city that everyone should see. Hoping to come back one day.

Hanif Khurram - Pakistan
29 June 2013

Firstly, we would like to thank Gail and her team for making our stay a memorable one. Whenever an issue needed to be addressed, the team tried their utmost to resolve it. Secondly, the area, it's surroundings, shops, cafés and numerous boulageries made it all the more exciting and I would strongly recommend the area. Thirdly, Paris is indeed a city one yearns to live in. We would love to come back and have no hesitation whatsoever in recommending Gail and PerfectlyParis for our future travels.

The Léger Family - Texas, USA
June 2013

This was our second stay in a PerfectlyParis apartment. We came to Paris to celebrate our 13th wedding anniversary and made it a family affair by bringing our children. We'd been here before prior to the arrival of our little ones so we had already seen the "touristy" spots and didn't really know how we would spend our time. But on the day of our arrival I came across the book "Paris with Kids" and it made a huge difference. We were able to find plenty to do while keeping a kid-friendly pace and not wearing ourselves out in the process. The staff at Perfectly Paris were as before, professional and enormously helpful, (Thanks Gail!). The apartment was bright and spacious and surprisingly quiet given it's lively location. The locals were pleasant. Overall, we had a great time and will definitely use PerfectlyParis for future travels to this charming city.

Sheila Hoover – USA
October 25 - 12 November

Yes 20 days of Paris magic. For the soul, the eye and the cuisine. And at the end of the day, a wonderful home to call your own and enjoy. The charm is a very cozy place and the best we have rented in Paris. The couches, the bed, the kitchen, the bathtub and the dining table made you feel like you are at home. We entertained friends, cooked dinner and had a great and memorable number of evenings here. The location and all the local shops are some of the best in Paris. Two restaurants we will always remember, "La Balancoire and "La Table d'Eugene". Our Greeter Lara made us feel welcome and answered all of our questions and needs. The booking on line was perfect and smooth. We will be back again some day – soon we hope!

Fiona Luke – USA
October 2012

We had a wonderful time here in Paris. I love the apartment except for two things, the toilet area was too small and the shower as well. I just want to say to that the apartment is such a beautiful place. We enjoyed the shops, the cafes and the fact that you could walk to everything. Thank you!

Narelle and Toni – Brisbane, Australia
30 September 2012

Thanks very much for a comfortable stay. The apartment was exactly as we thought from our on-line inquiries. My Do's and Don'ts for your first time in Paris;

- Do get a weekly ticket for transport. So much easier (You need a photo to do this – we used a photo booth as we didn't have colour copies of our passport.
- Don't go to Musée D'Orsay when the Louvre is closed – it's Rugby in an Art gallery.
- Don't attempt to jump on the metro any time the door buzzing sound starts.
- Do wear comfortable shoes everyday, I'm sure the Parisians are all beautiful because of the number of stairs and walking they must do every day!

Cheers!

Saba and Jona – New York and San Francisco, USA
23 September 2012

Bonjour or shall will say bonsoir? Thank you "Romantic Paris" and "Perfectly Paris" for such a pleasant stay. We shall come again and with others.

Trudi and Jack – NY, USA
31 July 2012

Gail, Preston and Laura. We've enjoyed the apartment, this area, and all of Paris. It's been a wonderful week and hope to return next year. Thanks for your assistance.

Joanne, Bob, Kate and Sophie – BC and Toronto, Canada
15 July 2012

A wonderful refuge in an amazing city. The apartment has all the charm of the city it is in Montmartre is a vital part of the city with an energy and grace of all it's on. Thanks for the comforts.

Ken and Gabrielle Boyle- Atlanta, USA
24 June 2012

A wonderful apartment with all the charm and grace one would hope for. A perfect memory of a wonderful city during a very special memory being made!

T.N.T.J. - Canada
17 March 2012

We had a wonderful vacation in Paris, and this apartment definitely made it even more enjoyable. We recommend:

Grenier à Pain – the bakery just a ways down on the left for morning baguettes, pain au chocolat and yummy pastries.

Au Reve Café- café in the other direction for dinner.

The Paris Pass was well worth the money.

Mary and Margaret – Galway, Ireland
4 March 2012

Really enjoyed our stay in this wonderful spacious well-equipped apartment. Paris Fashion Week a much more enjoyable weeks work, great space to relax after a busy days work.

Jack, Morgan and Denise – Sydney, Australia
January 2012

Again it is with great sadness that we leave Paris. After 4 nights at Caulaincourt Charm, squeaky floorboards and all, we leave this beautiful city and fabulous environment again. This is the second time we have had the wonderful Gail take the worry out of a fantastic trip.

M&P – Australia
January 2012

We have had the most fantastic week at the apartment. Fantastic location, lovely shops, and friendly shopkeepers. What a fantastic area! Wonderful days exploring the local area – just as well there were all those steps and hills after eating the lovely breads, etc. We would like to recommend City Free Tours we spent a couple of hours on a tour of Montmartre with Chris and his tour gave us a further insight. Cost for the tour is via a tip – not set price. Preston was terrific, great introduction. It's been the loveliest of times here.

Toni and Maricel
24 September 2011

Dear Gail and Preston, Thank you for your professional yet caring manner in dealing with us, guiding us along the way, patiently answering my queries – as we were planning this trip up until we got here! It's amazing how a short stay (6 nights) in Montmartre can inch its way into one's heart forever... this is one of the most romantic places we've ever been! I enjoyed planning our meals and everything we needed was just a short walk away. Of course it's also because you have provided thorough information and even a “book” of suggestions. We enjoyed buying fresh bread, pastries, fruits and more. Yesterday, on the occasion of our tenth anniversary, we walked to Sacre Coeur. What an amazing day! We admired the view, enjoyed the shops, walked to the Place du Tertre to watch the artists sketch some tourists. We had dinner at a cafe, while watching a mime perform and the Montmartre mini train passing by. As we were having dinner, a beautiful lady began singing “La Vie en Rose” - so sweet! Thank you very much! We hope to come back here some day. God bless you and your team. Thanks for the champagne!

Bill and Joan
10 September 2011

We loved the apartment! Perfect place to stay in Paris. Montmartre beautiful at night. Thanks Gail and Preston. See you again. Merci for the bottle of wine!

Amy, Alan and Eleanor
11 July 2011

We love this apartment! Floor is a little squeaky, but it's only a minor setback! My family and I went to this great restaurant up the road a little called La Jolie Bohemes. We were there on the second day it was open and kept coming. The people are so nice and even remembered us. Today, it's only been 9 days! I recommend escargots if you are brave enough (snails...mmm!). Also my family all loved the lamb. Montmartre is so fun! If you walk up towards Sacre Coeur, there are tons of cute shops and stalls filled with art. Watch your bag, though! I love all the cobblestone streets! I also recommend the bakery downstairs or the one up the road (next to Le Cepage).

Florence, Gerry, Alex and Téa – NYC and Minneapolis, USA
28 June 2011

We love this apartment, vraiment charmant! Beautifully decorated and with great amenities, it was so comfortable to come home to at the end of a long day. Bed was super comfy as well. All the reference books were handy and we loved the neighbourhood of course. The patisseries were excellent and we particularly had a great meal/dinner at “Au Pied du Sacre Coeur” at the bottom of the steps of Le Cépage, on the left. It was a bit of a heat wave (85-87F) and humid, but the evenings in the flat were lovely and cool... the views are great, too. Thank you Gail, Preston and Georgina at PerfectlyParis! The flat was parfait!

P.S. Merci pour la bouteille de vin.

Karen and Bob Laing – Port Macquarie, Australia
28 May 2011

As soon as we walked into our apartment – we fell in love with it. So well equipped – very comfortable. We loved coming ‘home’ to the village feel – people so friendly. We have had the most gorgeous 11 nights. We took advice from the information book for restaurants and were certainly not disappointed. We had a wonderful meal at Restaurant Le Sagitaire – 77 rue Lamarck and so reasonable, only ‘locals’ were dining. Thank you Gail and PerfectlyParis, the name sums up completely. We look forward to another visit very soon.

Ray and Sharon Young – Ottawa, Ontario, Canada
28 April 2011

The apartment was spacious, beautiful and well equipped. The people were all very friendly and helpful. Rue Caulaincourt had everything you could want. The weather was warm and sunny for 14 days! What more could we ask for? Many thanks to "PerfectlyParis" and "Caulaincourt Charm" for a fabulous vacation.

Mike and Maryke – Canberra, Australia
6 December - 14 December 2010

Wow! What a wonderful apartment in a wonderful location. We both love Montmartre, it has so much character. Loved the view from the kitchen as well as the lounge/dining room. The reference material on the shelf was used every day in some way. We liked all the offerings from PerfectlyParis and our stay here has confirmed just how good PerfectlyParis apartments are for travellers who prefer self-catering apartments. We know Montmartre well and our stay here on this occasion has not diminishes our interest and love for the 18th arrondissement. It has in fact further added to our enjoyment and pleasure of the 18th. The apartment was spacious, airy and most of all it felt like home. We would recommend it highly. We chose a winter holiday and we got it. It snowed for 2x days and the Butte was so picturesque, we have the most amazing photos. Thanks for the welcoming bottle of wine – we enjoyed it. Thank you Gail and Preston for all your help with answering queries and your responsive service and doing everything to ensure our stay was comfortable and that we were well informed.

Faymi and Eric Winters – Asheville, NC, USA
July 2010

A beautiful apartment in an amazing city! We feel so lucky that we could call this home while we got married this weekend! It was a simple, chic, fairy tale wedding filled with great food, love, friends and beauty. Thank you for helping us make our dreams come true – and wonderful, sunny, 75F degree weather in Paris certainly helped!

The Thomas Family – Victoria, BC, Canada
July 2010

We had a wonderful 4 nights here – not nearly long enough! The apartment was great – beautiful and well located. We loved the "neighborhood" feeling and could see ourselves blending in quite well here! Thanks for much. Next time we will be here for a much longer visit!!

Lesley – Australia
July 2010

Another great month with PerfectlyParis! Went everywhere, did everything and ate everything! Loved all the local shops except the miserable lady in the cheese shop – however found a very lovely young man at another cheese shop opposite FranPrix – much better!

Ate at: Cafe Qui Parle, Le Refuge (ok), Chez Ginette – la Salade Ginette very good. Au Reve – different dishes, Lui l'Insolent – good – Le Nord Sud Bistrot – good steak – and a host of other places. Downstairs patisserie voted best framboise tart! But preferred bakery down the road for other things. Le traiteur has some gorgeous things for a ready to go meal. The man in the bottle shop downstairs most helpful.

Kent and Linda – Cave Spring, Georgia, USA
6 May 2010

This was perfect for us. As everyone has said – the nearness of the metro, bus and even the taxi stand. But – what we fell in love with was rue Caulaincourt and the people here – charming, friendly, helpful. It felt like home.

Vivian and Roger – Orange, NSW, Australia
29 April 2010

We fell in love with the apartment as soon as we set eyes on it. It has been fabulous to have a “home” to return to each day. We couldn't have asked for a better location. We made excellent use of the metro-so very close! We traveled everywhere with great ease. The streets here are peppered with amazing restaurants, specialty shops and boutiques. Though we always tried our best to communicate in French, more often than not most shop assistants spoke English. The apartment itself was very comfortable and very well equipped. We loved stepping on to the balcony and watching everyone go by. The library: book and DVD, was very handy, as was the computer and Internet. We kept in touch with family as well as easily organizing tours from home with no need to use phone and worry about making ourselves understood. Thanks for a fabulous home base – we really don't want to leave but “c'est la vie”!

Sue and Noel – Perth, Australia
11 April 2010

We have had a wonderful nine nights in Paris and have loved spending time feeling at home in the apartment. The location away from the busy areas of Montmartre was wonderful and so handy to the metro. The restaurants were varied – some 'touristy' and some more 'local'. We particularly enjoyed 'Un Zebre a Montmartre'! Very crowded and noisy, but great food and very reasonable price wise.

P.S. If you have an iPhone, I found these applications very helpful: Paris240, Paris Smart Tips, Zuti Paris and Bit Knights English/French dictionary. Have fun!

Pamela – Seattle
6 February 2010

What a wonderful place! (I don't want to leave). Gail and Preston – you are the best. I will be back for sure!

David and Emilia – Australia
13 July 2009

How can one not fall in love with “Paris.” A city surrounded with beauty. We were fortunate enough to come home to the perfect Parisian apartment. It really felt like home. A perfect apartment with the perfect view on a perfect city. No wonder the agency chose to name its business PerfectlyParis. Thank you, Gail and Preston, it was perfectly delightful doing business with you. Shall definitely come again.

The Gearys
26 December 2008

Now that we have returned home I would just like to express our appreciation of the service of your company and the apartment we rented. Firstly we would like to express our appreciation to Preston who was fantastic when we accidentally left a money belt containing passports, train tickets and other important documents in the apartment but did not realise until we were on a train elsewhere. He obviously realised that we were a little stressed and as quickly as possible made sure we knew he had located the money belt. He faxed us copies of the urgent documents and arranged to meet us to return the money belt. We cannot speak highly enough about the service he offered us. Even prior to that he had been at the apartment to meet us when we arrived, he had explained to us how we could deal with the problem we were having with the Internet.

We also loved the apartment itself and the street it was on. The apartment was spacious, comfortable and very atmospheric with a wonderful kitchen and bathroom. Our only complaint would be about the toilet door but hopefully that problem can be easily rectified. We also loved the street it was on - it was also so atmospheric and we loved going to the butchery, bakery and restaurants in the area.

Loved our time in this beautiful Parisian apartment. The whole city and the immediate area is fantastic. Thank you so much for making our stay in Paris so wonderful.

Allison – ON, Canada
June 2008

Nice, quiet, comfortable, clean. Couch beds are hard... so says the next day headache after sleeping on these. Preston was on time and very polite, helpful. Who was that lady on the floor below who knows that we are Canadians and wanted to come in after knocking and politely persisting to come in and talk? Our best translation of French indicated a sales person? Who is she? Grocery store across the street has cheap wines, best quality is located next to main door. Restaurants in area – mostly tourist oriented, food ranging from OK to tourist trap. Avoid the Latin Quarter unless off main drag on side streets, many smallish and interesting places there. Again, avoid tourist traps. So many cavistes and so much to discover. Thanks all. We enjoyed the dos and don'ts of this interesting city. Staples such as sugar should be included. Thanks. Some briefing also on the use of museum pass and orange cards and connection to RER and metro. In all, a great place to stay and taste Paris. Thank you, Preston.

Barbara & Jehan – FL, SA
May 2008

Our trip to Paris made more special by the charm of the Caulaincourt apartment. We appreciated the décor, the Parisian “look”, the art and the color scheme. The location could not have been better. I lamented that there were no basic staples (sugar), oil, etc. as I always find that in rented flats. The bed was so comfortable I would recommend this lovely flat to all of my friends. Merci beaucoup.

Karen
December 2007

Caulaincourt Charm lacks for nothing! Our stay was most pleasant. We loved coming “home” after hours of walking, walking, walking. The most fun? Taking a walk without a map! And ride the buses! It's delightful to have a kitchen after enjoying delicious cheeses and foie gras – a big salad is just what's needed. Marvelous shops here on Caulaincourt. Stroll the Marais at dinnertime and discover one of many restaurants! Gail was great, responsive and helpful. Preston got us set up upon arrival. Yes – PerfectlyParis. Many thanks!!

What a wonderful experience? The wonderful Lauren warmly welcomed us. Staying at this luxurious accommodation in a truly Parisian neighbourhood allowed us to experience Paris like a native. The apartment is conveniently located close to wonderful shops where you could buy delicious food to make for a feast back at your apartment. The apartment is very spacious and is very fully furnished to a high standard and equipped in such a manner that we were left wanting for nothing. We found ourselves not wanting to leave the luxury and comfort of the apartment that felt like home to us.

The owners have prepared a wonderful guide to the apartment which contained lots of very relevant and accurate information (e.g. public transport, eating out, site seeing) to ensure ALL our needs were catered for. The apartment is extremely well served by Bus and Metro (approx 3 mins stroll) Being avid travelers and having taken numerous city breaks to include Paris (previously staying in hotels), this experience ranks as the most enjoyable. We experienced Paris in a relaxed fashion in a street surrounded by Parisians getting on with their day-to-day activities.

We will definitely be back to enjoy another taste of Paris in this splendid apartment nestled in Montmartre.

We loved it!! The apartment was large and spacious and suited our needs perfectly. It was quite, beautifully furnished and the large bed was extremely comfortable. The kitchen was fully equipped and clean, and the bathroom was spacious. The wireless internet connection worked perfectly so I could keep an eye on my emails. The English language channels and the DVD collection ensured quality downtime when we wished to relax. The Caulaincourt location was perfect and though the metro and bus was very close, we walked just about everywhere. The selection of grocery stores in the neighborhood was fantastic. A big thank you to Lauren who was our perfect host. My wife and I can't speak any more highly about the apartment and its location. A true Parisian experience.

Simply beautiful. A great sense of space and light in a one-bedroom apartment yet with an intimate feel. The kitchen and (amazing) bathroom are a treat to use. Having Parisian friends over for pre-dinner drinks, who themselves marveled at the tasteful decor, amenities and ability to entertain several guests in the spacious surrounds, was a delight. On a street with truly local character (fromageries, boulangeries, trattorias, cafes, pharmacies, wine stores, bookstores, etc.) yet only steps away from the tourist hubbub of Sacré-Coeur surrounds. Nearby bus stops and metro's can take you to any part of Paris, however with an apartment such as this one has to fight the temptation to simply stay at home!!

In February 2006, my husband and I enjoyed a wonderful week in Paris in your beautiful apartment. The location of the apartment coupled with the atmosphere you have managed to create there, resulted in a memorable trip. We truly loved it. The apartment is big and spacious and is beautifully furnished, with a very large and comfortable bed. We particularly loved the huge bathroom and the fact that the kitchen had everything we could possibly need. Thank you so much for letting us share your beautiful Parisian home. We hope to return soon.

What an amazing apartment! Beautifully decorated, super spacious, the bedroom and ensuite are enormous. There are incredible views in every direction - even the bathroom! The street is lovely and has all of the amenities. Just a few streets over is Sacre Coeur and close by is rue des Abbesses with all its night life. I had no idea that staying in the 18th could be so memorable.
