First time in Paris. What a lovely city! Very nice to come here and live like a local. We had a great time.

Carol Bernard – Michigan, USA
April 2017

Truly enjoyed the stay. The location afforded us an opportunity to explore the area with easy access to museums and the sites we wanted to visit. The information holder was also very helpful. Thanks Gail for the compact and comfortable accommodation.

We had a great time in Paris, our first trip here ever. I know some, but very little French and found the locals to be extremely kind and accommodating. I love the location of this apartment and we thought it was a wonderful stay. Thank you for the nice welcome. We hope to be back again.

Gail m'a accueillie très gentiment et très professionnellement. L'appartement était fidèle aux photos et très agréable, tout le confort nécessaire était fourni avec un grand plus pour le confort du lit et la qualité du linge de maison. La rapidité avec laquelle Gail a répondu à mes questions a aussi été très appréciée.

Very welcoming flat and wonderful as always! We are repeat customers! We had a tremendous time here as always. Love the flat, building and la marché. See you soon, we hope.

Steff Lailheugue – Paris, France

Très bonne communication, fluide, rapide, et efficace avec Gail. Mes parents, de retour de Nouvelle-Calédonie, ont dormi comme des anges, après leur long voyage, dans ce joli deux pièces calmes, chaleureuses et pratiques. Le quartier est très bien placé, animé juste ce qu'il faut pour appréhender la vie parisienne en douceur. Très bien desservi en terme de transports. La rue Levis est divisée en deux parties. L'appartement est situé dans sa partie commerçante mais calme et l'appartement est bien équipé. Il suffit de faire quelques pas pour faire ses courses. Génial ! Excellent fromager. Très bon caviste. Petits cafés Parisiens et restos sympas à deux pas, etc. Séjour vraiment très agréable ! Merci xxx

The host was extremely efficient when responding to email and the instructions to getting to the apartment was clear. My flight was delayed but the person that greeted me at the apartment was so gracious. The apartment was well appointed and had everything one needs and the location was a delight; conveniently located on a market street and just minutes from two metro stations. Merci, Gail!

Tout s'est parfaitement bien passé. La communication avec Gail a été très fluide et facile. Le lieu était parfaitement conforme à l'annonce, très propre avec tout le nécessaire. J'avais loué ce logement pour ma marraine et son mari, ils ont été ravis aussi bien du logement que de son emplacement. Merci Gail, tout était parfait, Larbi a été très sympa pour l'accueil.

Had a wonderful honeymoon here in Paris! Our first trip but hopefully not our last. The apartment was wonderful! My favourite part of Paris.... The Eiffel Tower at night!

Bob and Lorraine – Albany, Western Australia
September 2015

A perfect apartment in a wonderful location. Rue de Levis has everything! Thoroughly enjoyed our time living as Parisiennes. Could recommend PerfectlyParis apartments to anyone. Gail's prompt reply to our emails so very much appreciated. Everyone should visit this beautiful city at least one time in their lifetime. Thank you!

Doug, Toshie and Jess – British Columbia, Canada

June 2015

We had a great week – very centrally located. Wonderful shopping and markets – Morning café on the corner. Our only disappointment was the Le Patio Provincial café, which does not exist any more. We tried the new one but were disappointed and do not recommend it. This our second PerfectlyParis visit.

Catherine and James Bell – Australia

Mr and Mrs Hill have had a great time on our honeymoon. The city was great! Must take the tour bus and experience the great city of Paris. The food was great and the Parisians were very helpful in helping us with the language. Thank you!

29 September 2014

Dear Gail, only two words could possibly describe my time here. Merci beaucoup! This is a perfect location. Close to everything you could want or need. One feels like you are part of the daily Parisienne life. I would highly recommend PerfectlyParis. This is my second time of staying at a PerfectlyParis apartment. Gail you are so quick to respond to emails and questions. Georgina was so friendly and welcoming. Promise that wine in 2015 Gail and it is on me ! Sincere thanks. Loved my stay and sad to be returning to Australia. I leave with a heavy heart but some wonderful memories of my stay here. Much appreciation and thanks!

22 August 2014

Lovely to arrive in such a fresh feeling apartment. Charin our greeter was extremely friendly and helpful. The location here is so convenient both for the metro and also for local Parisienne living. In this visit we finally went to Park Monceau which is lovely and for our last evening we are off to sample a local coffe shop. Thank you Gail for all your help. Very best wishes once again.

Jon and Carol – Kennewick, WA, USA
August 2014

Great little apartment, perfect for two. Best location ever! Close to metro, centrally located, only 15 minutes walk to Arc de Triomphe. Rue de Levis has everything you could possibly want. This is truly Parisienne living! We will always use PerfectlyParis and look forward to more apartments in the Levis area, (this is our second). We would also highly recommend “Les Petit Villiers” restaurant. Tres bon!

Jan and Russell Candy – Australia
3 August 2014

Rue de Levis was just perfect for two people. Loved the location and all it had to offer. Buying fresh food from the market and specialty shops provided excellent picnics as well as substantial meals. We used restaurants locally and all were good. We could walk up and down rue de Levis all day watching people going about their daily activities. This would be our first choice when we next visit Paris. So easy to book and pay, and the back up support from Perfectly Paris is second to none! No hesitation in recommending this apartment to any couple visiting Paris. It certainly is PerfectlyParis!

Launie – Vancouver, Canada
27 July 2014

Thank you Gail and team. I was on my own in the apartment but felt like part of the street and neighbourhood. What a great location and the people on their way to work were happy to help me find my bearings. Handy supermarket and lots of food options within a short distance. The bed was very comfortable. Yeah!!!

Katherine, Kristen and Olivier – Iowa, USA
15 July 2014

We stayed here for a week of very strange weather, but finally sunny and warm. It was not our first stay in Paris, but our first with our toddler as part of our family...so we spent more time in playgrounds and parks than in museums this time around. The square des Batignolles Park was wonderful for our son to play in, and the surrounding area is one that we wish we had explored earlier. We enjoyed the Saturday organic market nearby too! Finally how can I neglect to mention some of the lovely pastries and bread from Delmontel down the street and Eric Kayser on 85, Bld Malesherbes.

Troy Rodriguez and family – Singapore
3 July 2014

My family just had a great time in Paris. This was our first vacation in France and we will be sure to come back for more amazing experiences. Living on Levis was a perfect place to stay for my family. The neighbourhood was lovely and had lots of nearby restaurants to choose from. Thank you Gail and PerfectlyParis for the stay. And thank you Georgina for the warm welcome.

En mi país (Mexico), mis amigos y nosotros. Platicamos que cuando vivamos lo que mas extrañamos es "El Calor de Hogar" (Sweet Home). Y las comodidades. En Levis mi esposa y yo encontramos to do eso. Saludos cariño a Georgina y Preston.

Linda and Emma – South Australia

15 June 2014

My daughter and I have just enjoyed another stay at this lovely apartment. So central and within walking distance to so many attractions, we shopped like locals and nice restaurants close by. Thank you for another beautiful holiday in Paris.

Jill and Shirley Murphy – New Jersey, USA

3 June 2014

Living on Levis was amazing! The apartment was lovely and we especially appreciated the kitchen and bathroom. Towel heater, nice touch! The neighbourhood was very nice. It was great to shop at the local stores. We found some wonderful take-out, bakeries and cheese shops on rue de Tocqueville. Also appreciated the free long distance calls.

Eva – CA, USA

24 May 2014

What a lovely place to stay and feel like real Parisienne's. Everything worked in this light and small apartment. We loved the baguettes, wine and cheese! Many thanks for a pleasant stay.

Julie Poger – Belgium

14 December 2013

Thank you for the lovely stay. As always, PerfectlyParis and the entire team made me feel welcome and cared for. It is always much nicer to come to Paris and have your own "chez toi", especially when coming for a week or two! I look forward to my next stay, and to possibly discovering another apt!
Happy Holidays

Michael Payne – Perth, Canada

10 November 2013

We had a nice stay here and we were able to walk to Sacre Coeur, Arc de Triomphe and Le Louvre. It rained almost everyday but we managed to avoid walking in the heavy rain. Nice neighbourhood. Quiet at night, but bright.

Sue and Bill – Richfield, USA

24 November 2013

We thoroughly enjoyed our stay here! The neighbourhood was wonderful to walk and shop in the market. The metro was close and we used it everyday. All in all, our first trip to France was great!

Jax – UK

22 September 2013

Paris Je t'adore! Je reviendrai! It was wonderful Living on Levis! It was wonderful living on Levis! Thank you Jim for giving me the opportunity to do so! The apartment is perfect – lovely accommodation – cosy and very comfortable. It was close to everything and easy to obtain various modes of transport. I loved the little shops in rue de Levis and surrounding streets as well as the restaurants. Merci!

Malcolm and Robin Lindsay – Sydney, Australia

14 September 2013

Only 3 and half days in Paris this trip as we are heading to Burgundy and the Loire for a French language course. Encore j'adore Paris. We always eat dinner in when staying on de Levis – great to kick the shoes off after long days of walking and museums. Turn right from the front door for quieter, tastier traitteurs. Highly recommend at Le Musée Jacquemart-

André café – gourmet salads with seafood, demi bouteille Bordeaux, tarte aux fruites, café, 50 Euros. Service was less chic but the food was great and atmosphere very belle époque.

Jenny and Terry Seymour – NSW, Australia
9 September 2013

Our second visit to Levis and it didn't disappoint! We loved the fact that we were living with the locals in their apartment block. Perfect location and so easy to access all the major sites. Organisation with Gail to get here was so easy and most professional. This apartment is great value – a home away from home. Lara was here to meet us and did an excellent job to make us feel comfortable. Thank you for the welcome bottle of wine and many thanks for a wonderful stay!

David and Rossi – UK
26 May 2013

PerfectlyParis was excellent! Lovely stay in an ideal spot on the map. Everything we could wish for.

Boon Keng – Singapore
17 May 2013

Wonderful apartment situated in an interesting neighbourhood that is bustling with people every morning. We had a thoroughly enjoyable stay and we love walking along the streets in the day just to check out the various stalls/shops selling wonderfully fresh produce. This is an excellent location for anyone who wants to experience living like a local. Thank you for the lovely restaurant recommendations! We tried almost all of them and the food was delicious! Overall, a great experience. Thank you for the memories!

Peter and Karen – Sydney, Australia
10 January 2013

Gail, thank you for allowing our Paris visit to have such a relaxing ambience. Your apartment is in one of the most beautiful parts of Paris. The shops and stalls on your street are wonderful. The apartment is perfect for a wonderful stay in Paris. Thanks again and we look forward to coming back in the future.

David and Ann Shneider – Michigan, USA
29 December 2012

We have enjoyed this little apartment even though we miss the Montmartre apartment we stayed in last time. This has been so much more convenient for our son and his family living close by, and being flat, much easier to walk around with a bad knee! Our eldest grand daughter turns 10 this week so we are very happy to be able to celebrate with her. Thank you so much for making our visit so enjoyable. We enjoyed seeing Preston again. Hope to see you next time. Happy New Year!

Lovely apartment located in a wonderful neighborhood. Each time we go out into the winter cold, all we can think about is returning to the warmth of the apartment. Absolute delight.

The Grahams – NSW, Australia
9 November 2012

Thank you for the wonderful stay living on Levis! It was great because you could get up in the morning and get a fresh baguette and pain au chocolat, and very close to the metro, easy to get around. The apartment was enjoyable with TV, Kitchen and comfortable bed. Thank you so much for letting us stay here.

Family Musovic – Serbia
1 November 2012

This was an excellent experience. Lovely apartment and fantastic location. Thanks so very much!!! All the best! :-)

Annette and David – Arlington Virginia, USA
24 October 2012

We appreciated the cozy apartment and getting to experience the neighborhood and market. The apartment had everything we could want (except for a soap in the shower which we bought and left behind). It was clean and modern. The stairwell to the 2nd floor was another matter. Not something for the faint hearted or anyone with a disability. The 'Paris Par Arrondissement' was very helpful. We took it with us everyday. Great metro and bus service and great walking in Paris. Paris was full of history and beautiful sights, sounds and smells. We went to the market everyday for breakfast foods, fruits and pastries. It's good to see how folks live in this community. We would recommend the apartment (with note on the stairway) to others.

Paul and Shanahan Ramos – Raleigh NC, USA
17 October 2012

This was our first trip to Paris and we loved staying in this apartment! We stopped in the market street everyday, took the metro everywhere and really appreciated the convenience of this location. We highly recommend the nearby restaurant "Patio Provincial", great food and wonderful service. We don't speak French and the waiters didn't speak much English but were very kind and patient and helpful so that we had a great meal and experience. Thanks for everything and we hope to return!

Leanne and Alan – Melbourne, Australia
5 October 2012

We had a comfortable, relaxed and enjoyable time here. Very convenient and very "Paris" This was part 2 of our holiday. After a demanding and enjoyable bus tour of Italy it was a joy to come back and relax in this wonderful apartment. The short walk to the metro was ideal especially after returning from a hard days walking. Most of all we loved the neighborhood. We will be back!!!

Kathryn and Jamie – UK
1 October 2012

Stayed here 4 years ago and felt like home coming back. Had an amazing relaxing weekend – beautiful city. We'll be back soon! P.S coziest bed ever!!!!

Sandra and Phil Langton – Victoria, Australia
26 September 2012

We always wanted to have a holiday in Paris so when the arrangements were confirmed, one month ago, we looked forward to our France holiday - First in the "South", then at Perfectly Paris finishing off. The most beautiful time one could imagine. The time here at Rue de Levis was just as good, all the helpful holiday hints and Preston appearing just minutes after we arrived in a taxi. Wow! Thank you, Gail for setting the beautiful place up. We've really, really enjoyed it.

Graeme and Janet Burrow – South Australia
21 September 2012

We had a short but most enjoyable stay here. The greatest feature was living amongst the locals! We enjoyed a meal at "Le Petit Villiers", which was one of the suggested places in the folder. The apartment was a refreshing change to hotel living as it had it feel like "home". The décor was lovely and bed very comfortable. We loved the patisserie on the left heading to Villiers metro and the raspberry flan and bread rolls in particular. Much thanks.

Arlene and Fred Sander – N.Y, USA
September 2012

We have thoroughly enjoyed our stay in Rue Levis. After just a few days we felt like locals.... shopping at the market, walking to the metro and stopping at some of those shops that are open late to stock up on a few provisions. This is a great neighborhood. Parc Monceau is a little gem. We'll be back!!

Jerry and Mary – Pittsburg, P.A USA
20 August 2012

Had a great time at our little apartment. Paris is beautiful!! Enjoyed a little cafe – bistro, " not sure of the name but they made us feel so welcome!!" (located in the next block up from the corner fruit market). We will be back someday! Thank you for everything.

Danielle and Will – USA
August 12-15 2012

We had the most beautiful first visit to Paris !. The apartment to call home is just what we needed to rest our feet for a bit and return to the city as our first visit was only 3 days. Paris did not disappoint!
We will be returning. Thank you!

Pete, Tine, Anton – Denmark
July 2012

Had a great time here. Lots of fresh fruit and veg nearby – Apricots and cherries in season now – and pretty good access to most of northern Paris. Thanks for providing such a pleasant base.

Heidi and Andrew
28 June 2012

Had a wonderful visit. The location was perfect and the apartment well stocked. Every detail carefully planned out... even a market basket. Merci for a lovely time.

Luke and Kate – Minneapolis, MN, USA
21 June 2012

This was part 2 of our vacation. We'd rented an apartment in Vienna and knew what we were doing as well as what to expect. What we didn't expect was the fabulous bathroom equipped for tall and short alike (rate in our experience). We were also thankful for the phone and Internet at our disposal. We loved, and enjoyed taking advantage of, the market down the street. We even stopped at the cafe, bar, brasserie for an excellent dinner at a reasonable price (they even have English menus if you ask). People are NOT kidding when they rave about the rotisserie chickens! We loved the central location of the apartment to a lot of the sites. Overall, this was an excellent experience! We enjoyed having an apartment, safe place, to come back after a crowded day in the city. It's a wonderful safe neighborhood. We will continue to rent apartments when we travel as well as recommend PerfectlyParis to others.

Lidia and Craig
14 June 2012

What an amazing location for a vibrant, beautiful and exciting city. Our short visit was not nearly long enough, however we managed to walk to some of the most outstanding locations in the world (and of course take the metro). The location of the apartment couldn't have been better and everything we needed was close by, including fabulous food. Your place was recommended by my brother, Robert, who wrote in this book in 2008- he was correct in all of his recommendations.

David and Diana – Vancouver, BC, Canada
10 June 2012

First time in Paris! We couldn't pick a better place for our 25th wedding anniversary! And when we say place, we mean: country, city and the apartment. Even hardworking garbage removing people were working for us: we never missed early tours :) ... But next time I will bring my laptop to make reservations, bookings and check museum times and more. Gail! Thank you so much!

Caitlin and Daniel – Calgary, AB, Canada
2 June 2012

What a great week in Paris! Definitely not long enough, we could probably stay a month longer. This apartment was perfect! Wonderful location next to amazing shops and supermarkets, only 5 minutes walk to the metro! Make sure to go by the beautiful park right by here, right by Monceau metro stop. Eat a pastry every day! They are amazing. Thanks to PerfectlyParis for helping us find this beautiful place.

Cynthia and Ted
24 May 2012

Our visit here has been short- just 3 days and sadly travel ate into those! We loved this area, it felt very friendly and people were very helpful and friendly. The apartment snag being that I thought '1st floor' meant ground floor in the American way and I am quite old, the stairs were quite heavy going! Really needed a table or something by the bed, with a light and something to hold soap or shower gel in the shower. Otherwise everything was fine. Last time in Paris was 35 years ago! It has changed. We enjoyed our short stay.

Sally & Dave – Cheshire, England
7 April 2012

Lovely apartment, fantastic location. So close to the metro. We always turned left out the door until one evening we turned right! Found another great bakers for even tastier bread and had a nice meal at Le Clair du Lune at the end of the road. Monoprix is great for all your essentials and of course the market just up the road. Brilliant. We have had a wonderful springtime break and will certainly book again.

Richard – Toronto, Canada
13 January 2012

Superb location, every amenity, excellent service. Immaculate. Will definitely lease this flat on my next vacation in Paris.

Keith and Nicola – Kent, England
1 January 2012

We had an enjoyable stay in Paris and loved the apartment in such a delightful street. Fresh bread and pastries on your doorstep, not to mention the hot roast chickens! Great location and a New Years trip to remember! We will be back.

Anca & Cristian – Bucharest
23 September 2011

Living on Levis was our first apartment rental in a foreign country and we believe it was the best decision ever! The freedom we felt and the coziness of the apartment were great. We enjoyed having breakfast in the morning and drinking a glass of wine late in the evening at the little table. Thank you for the warm welcome! Paris is a wonderful city, very romantic and full of history and culture. We have discovered museums and sights that we could visit for 100 times and never get bored!

Chau-Jean – Netherlands/USA
15 September 2011

Fully equipped. Rue de Villiers is very close by. Great location. Would recommend. Nice bathroom and kitchen (I lived in Paris and know how hard those these can come by).

Renee and Victor – North Carolina, USA
22 June 2011

Dear Gail and Preston, Thank you so much for making so much of our Parisian dreams a possibility. The apartment was wonderful, terrific location, amazing market, friendly people, etc. We will absolutely be back. A quick suggestion: a broom! Those pesky croissant flakes were a problem!

Carmel and Robert – Auckland, New Zealand
2 June 2011

What a wonderful apartment. Great location, clean and has everything you could possibly need as mentioned by many. A lovely place to come "home" to at the end of the day. Gail and Preston, thank you for your help and warm welcome. We will be recommending PerfectlyParis to our friends in New Zealand. A perfect apartment in a perfect city.

Michel – Canada
30 May 2011

Pleasant village atmosphere on the street. OK if you like being awoken every morning at 06:20 by the garbage collections!! Gives a good head start to beat the crowds at museums!

Melle and Finn – Germany
23 May 2011

Sunny Paris all over the week – we had luck, a lot of fun and we're very happy having that nice apartment. We have to come back, and back and back again! All the best!

Carol – New York, NY
7 April 2011

This is the second apartment I've rented from 'PerfectlyParis' and I can't imagine going to a hotel! Loved this neighborhood for its completely local flavor!

Suzanne & Gerry – Charente, France
24 January 2011

I have just returned from my first visit to Paris and having stayed at Living on Levis from Perfectly Paris I would just like to say how great the whole perfectly Paris experience was. From proactive email response to quick and clear answers to questions, a wonderful personal reception from Preston, the apartment as was area itself of high quality and easy to use as a home from home. We will be looking to rebook again in the future and will be using only one company to provide our accommodation - Perfectly Paris! thanks Gail and Preston for a wonderful and memorable time. PerfectlyParis = Simply perfect! Thank you Jim, Gail and Preston for making our weekend very special.

Kevin and Lesley – Australia
22 July 2010

We have had a wonderful week in Paris, the apartment is great, centrally located near the markets and metro. Many thanks.

My husband and I (we are residents of Australia) used the services of perfectlyparis.com in 2007 and 2010. The "Quartier de l'Europe" (2 bedroom, which we shared with our daughter and husband) matched all our expectations in 2007. The second apartment, "Living on Levis" (one bedroom) was in a brilliant location, it was modern, clean and the area was quiet and friendly. At the far end of Rue de Levis are the wonderful markets where we purchased delicious and fresh ingredients from the vegetable and fruit vendors and the sweet delights from the boulangeries. There are many cafes, restaurants and the Rome and Villiers Metros within easy walking distance of "Living on Levis". We would like to name just a few of the important reasons for using perfectlyparis.com in our opinion. 1. Gail's professionalism 2. Service 3. Honesty and reliability 4. Whenever we contacted Gail from Australia with our enquiries her response was always within hours. We cannot speak too highly of our dealings with Gail. France is a very long journey from Australia and what a pleasure it is to arrive in Paris with a warm welcome and find that all the information we have searched on the internet is what we hoped for and more. We would suggest to anyone visiting Paris if you want to feel part of the culture contact perfectlyparis.com. It is simply THE BEST!

7 June 2010

The apartment was all we could want; the surroundings were atmospheric for us (Australians). Gail's prompt response to our queries was much appreciated. We plan to recommend PerfectlyParis to our friends.

9 June 2010

Our first time in Paris and the apartment was great. Our French is very poor, but all the restaurants we tried had an English menu! So close to the metro, we felt like real locals! Loved all the food at the markets, just down the street. Was great to come 'home' at the end of the day. Will definitely recommend PerfectlyParis to our family and friends. Hopefully we will get the chance to come and stay again one day!

Linda – UK
19 February 2010

I had the most fantastic memorable time staying in this little apartment, everything is perfect! IT was really nice to come to Paris after 20 years. The bed was comfy and the location handy to shop and enjoy yummy patisserie. I definitely will recommend it and will come back sooner. People and surroundings are excellent especially when you are alone! Thank you Jim, see you back in the UK!

Angela & John McFarlane – Ireland
10 February 2010

Had a wonderful 1st visit to Paris. The apartment was perfect and so well located with the metro close by. We got to see so much but have still more to explore – so we'll have to come back!! Must recommend a little restaurant around the corner – good, amazing: Tribeca @ 100 rue Cardinet. Of course the market and shops of rue de Levis are also great. Oh and we even had a snowfall on Tuesday!! Thanks to Gail for all the help and we will definitely recommend PerfectlyParis to all.

Andrew and Nicole Jackson – Wollongona, NSW, Australia
9 January 2010

We had a fantastic time "Living on Levis". The apartment was great – it had everything we needed and was in such a good location with the markets down the street and the metro so close by. Even in winter we walked nearly everywhere and we definitely recommend walking as much as you can in Paris, it saves money (you only have to catch the metro home) and you can burn off all the pastries and bread you eat from the excellent bakeries in Paris!! Gail was lovely to deal with during our many e-mails back and forth before our stay and Preston (who met us here) was so kind and helpful showing us around our Parisian home. We are sad to leave and would definitely recommend "Living on Levis" and PerfectlyParis to all our family and friends.

Frances Wolf – Montana, USA
31 December 2009

Months before coming to Paris I began to e-mail Gail. Each and every e-mail was responded to in a timely, warm and professional manner. Never having been to Europe and with a life-long dream of visiting Paris, I was nervous and excited. Gail politely answered all my questions and paved the way for living at 86, rue de Levis. Arriving several hours late from the airport, I exited my taxi exhausted and expected Preston to be a bit put out for being kept waiting long after the agreed upon time. Not so. Preston greeted me warmly and generously spent the time I needed to explain the workings of this beautifully appointed apartment. Every convenience one could require is here. Immediately I felt at home, comfortable and secure. This was to be my home for two and a half months.

Thank you Gail and Preston for all your help in making my dream a reality. And to all who come after me, I wish you the joy of discovery...

Melissa and Geraint – Liverpool, UK
30 August 2009

Thanks. We have really enjoyed our time here in Paris. Nice little apartment in a lovely area (if a little noisy first thing in the morning!). We'd happily return so I'm sure you'll be seeing us again in the future.

10 July 2009

Thank you Gail and Preston for a lovely stay here and at the apt "Magnifique Monceau".

Jackie and Heidi – Hawaii
30 June 2009

Rather than repeat all the fantastic notes regarding rue de Levis, we agree 100 percent – most delightful treat of a street! Had dinner our last night at Le P'tit Canon, so close, card attached. Only 3 outdoor tables, small place, incredible menu and superbly cooked and presented and reasonable. Thanks again Gail and Preston!

Suzanne and Graham – Smith, Scotland
26 June 2009

Thank you Gail for another great apartment. This is our 2nd time staying in a PerfectlyParis apartment and we were most impressed once again! A lovely neighborhood with great amenities. We ate really well due to the proximity of the market and found the metro so close. We went on the 'Chocolate Tour' by Paris Walks, which I would highly recommend. We will be sure to book with PerfectlyParis for future trips! Many thanks.

David, Liljana and Tim – Sydney
23 June 2009

Thanks for a wonderful place to stay in Paris. The apartment was great and the location fabulous. Thanks for quickly fixing the fridge for us. We will definitely recommend this place to our friends. Thanks again.

A start to a month's holiday in Paris – our ten days here have been absolutely fabulous. Everything said in previous comments have been confirmed by us. Very relaxing and the apartment with all the added little touches have made it a haven to come back to each day. A few wet days we did not venture out – first down to the market for fresh strawberries, to the patisserie for the delicious cakes and of course a baguette along with the red wine. We have eaten like 'kings', but with walking average 10 km or so a day hopefully not too much damage!

Gail was such a pleasure to deal with and made it all so easy. We certainly will be recommending her to our friends back home, the car from the airport was a bonus and then to have Preston waiting for us with the keys after a long plane trip straight through from Sydney – was fantastic.

We've had a wonderful start to our month long holiday with our first week spent in the apartment. Paris has lived up to our expectations having only spent 2 days here 18 months ago. The street market made us feel at home and we have done nothing but eat and walk! Thanks to Gail to answered my e-mails so quickly and to Preston for welcoming us to the apartment. It has all been fantastic, the location, the bed, the wine, the shops and your guidebook with absolutely everything we needed to know! We even had a little bit of "Sydney" at cafe/bar at the end of rue de Levis, a waiter having lived in Sydney for 4 years! He was very eager to chat. Many thanks!

Gail and Preston, thank you for giving us a lovely "home" to stay in. It was most comfortable and conveniently situation. We loved living as Parisians with handy access to all the great sights of Paris via the metro. We'll be back!

Thank you, Gail and Preston! Living on Levis is easy to book and easy to enjoy! We loved the neighborhood and getting around to see the sites is easy and fun. It was always nice to come "home" to our little apartment and relax. Nous aimons Paris!

J'ai bien aimé l'appartement et j'ai trouvé qu'il était accessible facilement au métro et au marché. C'est génial aussi pour manger nous n'avons pas besoin de toujours payer le resto.

Bonjour Gail, D'abord un gros merci vous et à Preston pour votre gentillesse et votre disponibilité. Sans aurions connu des situations difficiles. Nous avons adoré vivre au 86 rue de Levis. C'est une expérience de vie parisienne exceptionnelle avec les boutiques et le marché tout près. La station de métro Villiers, à quelques minutes de marche, nous permet d'accéder rapidement aux sites touristiques de la Ville Lumière. L'appartement est très confortable et il me plairait d'y séjourner de nouveau. J'ai pris vos cartes d'affaires pour mes amis qui rêvent de venir à Paris. Merci encore et... qui sait? À une prochaine fois peut-être...

Thank you for everything as we both very much enjoyed our stay, Living on Levis. I must admit it has been very easy for myself and Lou to get around the area as my name is Levi so I have been treated like royalty! The apartment was exactly what we wanted after and by far the best place we have stayed in Europe, we had everything at our fingertips. The location of the apartment is fantastic with the markets, fresh food (not to mention the best quiche lorraine we have ever had!). We were able to walk to everything we wanted to see although a little tired we thought the best way to see the main attractions and also get some surprises along the way. It was about 45 minute walk to the EF tower and from there most things are reasonably close. We definitely recommend PerfectlyParis to all and have very close friends staying in May and know they will love it. Hi Dave and Vick have a ball and don't forget...Paris is the city of love!

Bonjour! Merci beaucoup for everything! The apartment was great! The location is perfect and the market is wonderful! My girlfriends and I had a fabulous time in Paris! I would recommend a detailed explanation with the washer, it was very confusing and our clothes kept coming out drenched. Thanks again!

Thanks Preston and Gail for a great little apartment. Nice and close to everything and the markets/shops around the area are great for picking up groceries if you want to eat in. We had a great time in Paris, hope you do too!

This was our first visit to Paris. We appreciate and are so lucky to have stayed at this wonderful, cosy apartment. Everything is in walking distance and very convenient. Fantastic area – I suggest dining at "Le Tableau". Have fun.

P.S. Thank you Gail once again for providing such a great apartment.

Thank you so much for the great apartment! It was incredibly clean and cosy – parfait. We had an amazing time and can't wait to get back in touch with you in the future for our next stay. We really appreciated the kitchen and stocked cupboards, too! Would definitely recommend this apartment to anyone and everyone for their stay in Paris!

We really enjoyed the apartment. Clean, comfortable and well equipped. We like having a nice kitchen and so that we didn't have to eat out each night. Very easy to walk to most tourist spots. Great position! We also loved the street with the shops and markets. Really appreciated the little extras like the wine. We will recommend the apartment to our friends.

Thank you Preston and Gail for letting your unit to us. Terrific position close to everything. This is our first trip to Paris and we enjoyed every minute of it. We walked everywhere and admire every place. Thank you for that bottle of wine, we needed it after our long walks.

This was my 6th visit to Paris and my wife's 4th visit – and this was our best visit. This apartment is terrific – great location, great facilities. We only had 2 sunny days, but only 2 wet days, and who cared. There was so much to do (even on a 6th visit) that we didn't care about the weather. For a great morning or afternoon when you are museumed out, go to Bastille and do the Art Walk – 4-5 km above the streets of Paris, or do the Canal St. Martin boat trip.

What an amazing 10 days! First time in Paris after waiting many years – a very special 50th birthday present. Paris exceeded our expectations, a lot due to our apartment and this wonderful area. We found everyone here friendly, especially the lovely man at the charcuterie near the Villiers metro (end of Levis) who made such an effort to learn English and to teach me French. Beautiful food – we tended to try all the wonderful choices in our flat after busy days. It was a constant difficulty to make a choice. Would recommend the sauerkraut and sausages and ham cooked each day at above shop. Also, the osso bucco and tagliatelle. Interesting street, comfortable bed, easy metro and all the amazing sights made it such fun. Enjoyed finding trash and treasure market Marché Europe Sunday afternoon on the way to Musée Jacquemart Andre (lovely!). Also stumbled onto Musée Nissim de Comando (we were two of about 6 people wandering around this lovely private residence). Would also commend Musée Rodin and the trip out to Giverny. Very easy train from St. Lazare. Thanks Gail and Preston – organization faultless and have already recommended PerfectlyParis to other travelers!

Thanks Gail, enjoyed our little abode on rue Levis. I feel like I've experienced "living in France" now; what a friendly, quaint area to explore Paris from. The bottle of wine was a nice touch to welcome us. Enjoyed it all!

Thank you so much for a lovely time. Living on Levis added so much to our stay in Paris. This setting is ideal with a very friendly street and lots of character in the market place. It really is a joy to just stroll around and soak up the atmosphere, interrupted by the odd glass of "wine" and a snack. Metro central to everything and so easy to work out which way to go. The water bus from Eiffel Tower is well worth the day pass-just hop on and hop off to see all the major sights or just stay on for the round trip. Weather fantastic so we will be back another time.

Gail and Preston, this visitor's book is a testimony to all that is offered at 'Living on Levis' apartment. No one could ask for more! Being our 1st time in beautiful Paris, we are having the time of our lives! And love coming "home" every night after our adventures. In return for making our stay so welcoming, we can only give you a picture of where we are from and should you visit our country one day, we can only hope you will both we also given such a warm welcome and find our country as gorgeous as we have found yours!

Thank you so very much. We have had a wonderful time in Paris. The apartment has been wonderful, with everything that we needed and more. The market is amazing and so nice to have such good food so close. The apartment is in a perfect location. It made our week here so enjoyable. Hopefully we will return in the not so distant future.

Some suggestions: (most of which have already been suggested). Walk everywhere! We soon discovered magical places and friendly people – most tourist spots are so close: 20-30 minute walk to Arc de Triomphe from here – Eiffel Tower a short walk from Triomphe. Walk to beautiful Montmartre and the Sacré Coeur. The markets at the end of this street were brilliant and so easy to shop for food each day! We loved everything! The people, the apartment, the food, the wine, the sights, Paris!

We have had 3 lovely days here on rue de Levis. We arrived Wednesday, tired and jet lagged and found a restful refuge. We slept the afternoon away and had a wonderful meal at the Basque restaurant just down the street. The fish special was wonderfully fresh and my daughter had the squid in black ink, unusual for an 11 year old. We loved shopping in the neighborhood and visiting the street market. Everything is so close and the people have been very friendly to us, perhaps having a child helps. We had another great dinner at the Bistrot le Petit Canon on rue Legendre. We highly recommend Musée Marmotton and Musée Jacquemart André – a great collection of Monet paintings in the first and a fascinating look at what was once a private home of an art collector in the second. We had dinner with our French foreign exchange student and her family and we learned that she lives about one minute from the apartment! Everything we needed was provided and we thank you, Gail and Preston for the thought and care you have put into the apartment. We hope to return! I like that it was close and convenient to all the food and shopping on the streets. It was nice to have a kitchen and eating area. One day we got sushi at Sushi Ba on rue des Dames it was nice to eat it in the apartment. I loved the apartment!

We have been in Paris for a week now and have seen all the sights. The Eiffel Tower, the Louvre (5 hours in there!), the Arc de Triomphe, a boat tour (highly recommend this), Notre Dame and all the rest. We are thoroughly pleased with our visit to Paris and our empty bank accounts will prove it! But the nicest thing about being in Paris is having a nice, safe place to stay. How lucky we were to stay in this sweet little apartment in the streets of Montmartre. It's so nice to have a home base to put your things. It became our home and we poured our joys and sorrows into it like our real home. And even though the garbage man seems to come everyday at 6:30 AM, it's still a treat to stay here. Thank you Gail and especially Preston for looking after us!

Jane & Kevin – Dublin, Ireland
5 February 2008

What a fabulous few days! The apartment was a fantastic idea (a friend of ours had recommended it). It is so central, yet you still feel like a native Parisian with the market nearby. Paul is a delicious bakery nearby – you have to sample their croissants etc! The apartment itself is perfect – so clean and cozy and French. It has everything you need, including an adapter, which we had forgotten – thanks Gail and Preston, we most certainly will return to a PerfectlyParis apartment and will recommend it to family and friends. Thank you for your thoughtfulness and your help.

P.S. The Buddha Bar (at 8, rue Boissy-d'Anglas) was an absolutely fantastic restaurant – the ambience, food and service was second to none however it was on the expensive side (170E/2 people) but a wonderful treat!

Niamh & Karl – Dublin, Ireland
1 February 2008

Had a great time here this week. Living on Levis was perfectly situated with Villiers only a few minutes walk from our door. We mostly walked everywhere for the first day or two to take in the sights and get our bearings but the metro is very easy to use especially when you've been walking all day! We saw all of the sights while we were here – would definitely recommend going to the Eiffel tower at night. We also went to the Moulin Rouge for a show –Feerie- it was 99 euro (show only) but you also get a half bottle of champagne – would definitely recommend a trip, it is expensive but you wouldn't believe it until you've seen it – amazing. Taverne Villiers is just around the corner down rue de Levis opposite Villiers station nice for a quiet drink the market also has lovely fresh fruit and plenty of bargains!

Overall we had a ball and will definitely be back in the winter months we would recommend keeping the heaters on all the time, as the bedroom gets pretty cold at night. Thank you Gail and Preston for everything.

14 December 2008

This is our second visit and was planned so close to Christmas so we could do some of our last bits of shopping here in Paris. Not only did we manage to buy what was needed but we also took in some fantastic sights. Being so close to the Metro it was easy to get around. I will definitely come back the same time next year as the Christmas lights are stunning. Being on top of this beautiful French market means we also have everything on our doorstep if we didn't feel like going too far... due to shopping fatigue! The local bars are very friendly. We had a lot of fun. Thanks so much. Same time next year??

8 December 2008

Bonjour – merci, the apartment was “perfect” met all our needs, very convenient and comfortable. Thank you Gail and Preston. Couple of places we visited that may be of interest to future guests:

- Great bread shops: Paul (on rue de Levis), Au Pain du Naturel (on Levis near apartment),
- Great cheese: Androuet (rue de la Terrasse) try Saint Felicien (soft and yummy) and Stilton (blue) to die for.
- Best fruit/veg – corner of rue de Levis and rue Leboutoux.
- Great restaurants: A Table (94, rue des Dames, off of rue de Levis market end), great food, set menu or à la carte, owner is French and married to an English woman. Great for dinner. Village: off of Levis on rue de la Terrasse.
- Helpful wine shops: Nicolas (market end of rue de Levis).
- Must visit: Place du Tertre (Montmartre), Musée Rodin (breathtaking!) at 79, rue de Varenne, metro 13). Chateau de Versailles (wow!), Notre Dame Cathedral (go up tower, 420 steps).

Metro very convenient but can be crowded. Hope everyone after us has just as enjoyable experience as we have had. Au revoir.

Lovely time again in Living on Levis – alarm clock got us up and out to Euro Disney. Rue de Levis lovely as always. Thanks once again.

Vanda & Ian Mackenzie – Toronto, Ontario, Canada 22 October 2007

This was our third time in Paris, but our first staying in an apartment and we'll definitely book with PerfectlyParis again. We had never ventured to the 17th arrondissement but Living on Levis made discovering it a job. As well, the proximity to Villiers was very helpful – even on those days when the strike was ok. It just gave us an opportunity for more walking! The apartment was more than we expected and provided a great base. Gail, I can't thank you enough for answering our questions. And a special thank you to Laura who patiently waited for us to check-in even though we were 40 minutes late as the result of a personal injury occurring on our train ride from Caen. Gail thanks again for everything – especially the wine! As you can see, it has affected my husband as well!

Feyza & Peter - UK 27 September 2007

We came from England for my first trip to Paris (although my partner's 3rd trip), however, Living on Levis made our stay perfect! It might be a small apartment but you couldn't ask for more – it has everything we needed to make it home-from-home. Gail, you were fantastic in helping us organize everything and we really did appreciate all the extra touches – wine and welcome book! The apartment is situated in an ideal location to the Villiers metro links and we were easily able to visit the sites – the Louvre, Pompidou Center, Sacre Coeur, Eiffel Tower, etc! We found some fantastic areas for shopping including St. Sulpice, Montmartre, Rennes, the Latin Quarter (near Chatelet Metro), Champs-Élysées to name a few! I managed to buy a whole new winter wardrobe! We really would recommend anyone visiting for the first time to make the trip uphill to the Sacre Coeur – there are a million steps (or the funicular if you have wobbly legs) but the view on a clear day is fantastic. We found a lovely restaurant nearby called “79” – from the apartment follow the road left until you reach Benetton, turn left and then take a road on the right. There are a no. of nice places to eat down that road (rue des Dames) however 79 is very modern and excellent food – French bistro style.

Charmarie Blaisdell & Stanley Levy – Tenants Harbor, ME, USA 10-23 Sept 2007

We enjoyed our stay here very much. We chose this quartier because it was new to us and it lived up to our expectations. I have been coming to Paris regularly since 1967 so for us it's returning to our favourite sites and haunts rather than “sightseeing”. I have watched Paris change in 40 years and to me Levis seems “real” and the way Paris used to be. If you get tired of the noise and hustle of Levis – turn right out of the front door and walk down 2 blocks. A different quartier quiet- nice shops and we thought better quality and more friendly. Be sure to visit La Cité de l'Architecture et du Patrimoine at the Palais de Chaillot (metro Trocadero). It just opened this week and is a magnificent display of cathedral portals, sculpture, and stained glass. Also, Musée Marmatton in the 16th and the Musée Nationale of the Middle Ages (Cluny) at rue St. Germain and rue St. Michel. Everyone rushes to the Louvre – these museums are quieter and are gems. Favorite restaurants: Preuve par Neuf on rue Damrémont for dinner – reasonably priced good food. For lunch, La Loire dans la Theiere at the corner of rue des Rosiers and rue Mahler in the 4th. This is the Marais area so don't miss the Place des Vosges. Also near the Jewish quarter – great falafel on rue des Rosiers. Take the bus whenever you can (#31 goes to Trocadero) you see more. We hope you come to love France as much as we do. This is a perfect place to begin – on the rue de Levis!

P.S. The Museum of the History of Montmartre is fascinating and the backside of the hill with its narrow streets, vineyards and views is a wonderful walk.

A great apartment in a great location. Made an excellent base to come back to after a day of wondering the city. The well-equipped kitchen made it easy to enjoy a lovely meal of food bought from the market. We would definitely come back and recommend Perfectly Paris.

We finished our 5 week summer in Europe with a few days at Living on Levis – our first time to Paris. What a great city – and we loved this neighbourhood! Eating in at night after ridiculous amounts of walking during the days was perfect. (Try the gourmet frozen food store around the corner). Also, if you stop late afternoon, for pastries and bread a few doors down, they'll probably throw some extra treat in for free – great baguettes. The street is quiet (so different from Rome) and the breeze through the windows is blissful. Small, but perfect. Thanks, Gail.

22 July 2007

We love your apartment and we had a fabulous time in Paris. The market is amazing and even our 13 year old son enjoyed shopping for food. Your apartment is beautifully renovated and we appreciate that it is non-smoking. We will definitely come back. Thank you!

P.S. Thank you for your assistance, Gail, your business is very well organized.

Jenn & Irene – New York City
6 July 2007

We loved the apartment! It is very close to the metro and supermarkets... and many patisseries. The street it's on is very cute as well. The towels were soft and fluffy; the comforter very nice, the bathroom clean... and it was nice having different mirrors in the apartment, especially the full length in the bedroom. We would definitely stay in a Perfectly Paris apartment again.

Suggestions: alarm clock

The phone was amazing to have, very nice to be able to call landlines in the U.S. Thank you for all your help, Gail and Preston, and for showing us around the apartment,

P.S. We cooked a wonderful meal in the kitchen one night – everything we needed was provided except the groceries of course. Thank you for the wine!

Myself, my sister and my daughter are on vacation here (Virginia, USA, California, USA and daughter going to school in Marseille). I found this on www.vacationrentals.com. I own "High Dune Hideaway" in Duck, NC, USA. This has been great and perfect for seeing Paris. I like it better than a hotel as we have a kitchen and can wash our clothes. The price is better than a hotel (in spite of the week dollar). I would stay again when I return to Paris. Thank you Gail and Preston for all the help!

P.S. The bottle of wine was a nice touch and the free international long distance was great! Suggestions: buy an alarm clock for the bedroom for catching early flights!

Paris has so many sights - old towns with old history. Museums, cathedrals, palaces- amazing! Back to the new country alas.

We have had such a marvellous time in such an incredible city – 10 days to remember for the rest of our lives. The weather couldn't have been better, the lines shorter and the food more delicious! We discovered le Patio Provençal right up on the rue des Dames with its wonderful wines. The apartment was terrific. Gail has again helped us achieve just what we had imagined.

We very much enjoyed our stay in the apartment. It was a perfect size for us and a great place to call “home” in Paris. The market was a welcome presence and enjoyed visiting our favourite stalls and shops every evening on our way home before making dinner. The 17th is a great area of town and the metro makes everything easily accessible. Thank you for a wonderful stay.

Thank you, Gail, for such a wonderful place to stay in such a wonderful part of Paris! The three of us (including our one-year-old son) had a fantastic time. Highly recommended for other toddlers: the Jardin d'Acclimatation in the Bois de Boulogne and the playground in the Jardin de Luxembourg.

Comfortable, cute and cosy apartment. Neighborhood is great – never far from really great bread, pastries, etc. Parc Monceau is wonderful anytime but especially on Sunday afternoons. If you have the time you should visit the Loire Valley and some chateaux. Brugge is also wonderful – a very easy train ride and easy to get around on foot once there! Really enjoyed our stay here – thank you for all the help with our numerous questions!

We had a very comfortable stay in your cosy flat and the street market is remarkable. Paris has lived up to its reputation for being a place where food is celebrated. The Arc de Triomphe is only a half hour walk away and another twenty-minute walk took us to the River Seine and the Eiffel Tower. Thank you Gail for providing such good service. Kindest regards.

We all thoroughly enjoyed our stay at your lovely flat – very relaxing and homey feel to it. Took advantage of the fab market close by and simply had to sample fares from various eateries and bakeries so we have gone home happy been heavy! Local people all very friendly and helpful.

Apartment much more centrally located than meets the eye. Metro/RER takes you most places. Short ride to central Paris. Good idea to take tour bus (2 hour ride 22,50E) to see many major attractions and helps make plans. It is a two-day pass and you can get off and on whenever you wish. Market very useful for fresh fruit and vegetables and baked goods. Monoprix supermarket is near end of market. If you don't want to cook much there is Picard frozen food store with a very wide variety of instant meals. If you need hardware and electrical stuff and more there is a small store on rue Legendre. I really enjoyed my stay and the “real” family neighbourhood and its diversity. I did wish I had brought light layers of clothing as it was warmer than I anticipated! The “comfortable” shoe store at the corner of Legendre and Levis saved me as my feet were suffering. I did have language difficulties but my “street” French partner generally saved me. There are few English reading periodicals or books readily available in this neighbourhood. We loved cooking and living French – and are very sad to go home to our more complex lifestyle.
