Le logement de Gail est admirablement situé, très au calme et dans la verdure, beaucoup de charme, en plein Montmartre avec la ligne de métro Lamarck qui dessert très bien plein d'endroits à Paris. Gail est très réactive dans sa communication. Arrivée et le départ sont très faciles. Je recommande cette adresse. Very well located in Montmartre village. The little house is very peaceful like being out of town. Lamarck station is charming and you can go easily everywhere in Paris. Gail is taking of you and communication is quick and easy. I really enjoyed my stay and I will recommend it around me.

Great location. Safe and private. Walking distance to metro, restaurants, shops. You can get anywhere in Paris by foot, bus or metro. Train trips to Versailles and Giverny easy to plan. Thanks for everything Gail. We had a great time.

Amazing location (near metro), adorable two-story cottage, charming neighborhood and hosts who go above and beyond! Would easily stay here again if I visit Paris.

This house was the perfect place to live like a local in the 18th Arr. Gail was so helpful and was very easy to get in contact with if we ever needed her! We would definitely stay here again! We had such a wonderful trip!

Handy location for exploring Montmartre, which can be done on foot from the maison. The maison is secluded away from the hustle and bustle of the street, tucked away in a private, cobbled courtyard. The metro is less than a 5-minute walk away (albeit up some stairs), and you won't go hungry in the neighbourhood, which has a wide choice of restaurants and cafes. Thanks for a hosting us Gail; we had a lovely time at the maison

This little house gives you the opportunity to experience the flair of living like a Parisian in Montmartre. The metro is next door and you have plenty of nice cafés around the corner. Due to the fact that it's an old house, you should not expect the luxury and the quality of modern state of the art apartments, which on the other hand is part of the charm of this little house. In the nighttime the place is so quite that you even hear the light rumble of the metro.

Gail and her were very responsive to all of my queries and everything went to plan. I was welcomed to the flat and given a thorough explanation of access and its facilities. I loved its peace and quiet, friendly neighbours, and proximity to the metro and other amenities.

We absolutely loved our flat in Montmartre. It was a perfect location in a vibrant neighborhood. With the Metro just one staircase away, we could get everywhere we wanted to go very easily. The flat has the use of a landline for free long-distance calls to the US, which helped keep us in touch with friends and family.

Thank you for so efficiently handling our stay at Maison in Montmartre. We thoroughly enjoyed our time and just loved the location. We were very comfortable in our little house. We hope to return. Thanks again.

The location is really good - everything was as describe. Gail was very responsive when we were not sure to be at the right place. But all the details were in the pdf! Lovely apartment.

This little house was a great base for our stay in Paris. It was clean, well-kept, had a comfortable bed, and was in a lovely neighbourhood. The location was near Sacre Coeur and Place du Tertre but away from the hustle and bustle. It felt more like a real Paris neighbourhood than a tourist ghetto (complete with lots of grocery and food options). There was also a metro stop nearby linking to the city centre and its sights. My only complaint was that the house was a little damp, even with the heater on, so our clothes wouldn't dry after washing them. That said, I suspect it was an exceptionally damp couple days in Paris while we were visiting. Gail and the Perfectly Paris greeter who let us into the apartment were very nice and helpful throughout the process. I would definitely recommend this apartment and Perfectly Paris in general.

What a lovely time we had at this beautiful little cottage! Gail and Georgina were so helpful and made our trip one to remember. The neighborhood was INCREDIBLE. So much to do within easy walking distance, and the Metro station is literally seconds away. Super convenient. There is even a wonderful coffee shop right next door. After long days of exploring, coming back to your private little garden home is so comforting and relaxing – and QUIET. It's a charming oasis amidst the hustle and bustle of Montmartre. Would stay here again in a heartbeat – and hope to soon :) Thank you so much for making us feel at home.

From the moment we walked in the door we had a sense of peacefulness; we had picked the perfect place. Georgina met us here with the keys and explained everything we needed to know, she was truly fantastic. Gail was exactly the same, impeccable service; communication was brilliant, leading up to our stay and throughout. We have such an amazing two weeks in Paris and we cannot wait to return back to Montmartre, hopefully the Maison in Montmartre will be available to us again. Thank you Gail and Team. We found the place exactly as described. Very nice little cottage. Handover was smooth, everything was explained to us in a friendly manner and the place was clean and tidy and ready for us upon arrival. Internet worked well. You are very close to metro line 12 so getting around is an absolute breeze. Restaurants and bars are plentiful and the area on the north side of the Montmartre hill is not overrun with tourists. All in all we had a very nice stay and the Maison is a perfect stay for a holiday in Paris

What a wonderful little house in the best part of Montmartre. Loved our stay here....Full of wonderful people, great cafés and restaurants. We would love to come back here again.

It was exactly what we wanted. Paris, Montmartre, very close to the metro, shops, restaurants, all so close. The flea market (Marché aux Puces) is worth the short time to get there. The Maison has its faults but it is just right. Moulin Rouge is brilliant, a bit expensive but excellent. Crazy Horse was a lot of rubbish and not worth the time. Thank you Paris, and I at 68 yrs. forgive you for all the stairs. Two Aussies in Thailand.

Excellent location for seeing the sights of Montmartre. A good variety of restaurants nearby and within a comfortable walking distance. Apartment had everything a couple would need for a few days away from it all.

My husband and I really enjoyed our stay in Montmartre. The area was quiet and comfortable, and the flat was perfect for our needs. Gail and her team were incredibly responsive to our questions, and we would absolutely stay at one of their Paris apartments on a future visit.

My wife and I really enjoyed our stay at Maison in Montmartre. The place was cozy and quiet; the neighborhood was great, overall a great experience. Gail is very organized and we had no trouble checking in, or out. The stairs are small and steep, but the bed was very comfortable and the bathroom, while a little small, was perfectly fine. Highly recommended.

Chere Gail l'appartement était parfait. Maison in Montmartre est tres comfortable et calme. Merci Georgina pour ton hospitality. I promise to return. I leave Paris once again with a heavy heart.

Leaving a very special place here. Gail thank you, my third PerfectlyParis stay and once again parfait. See you again next year.

This was our first adventure with Airbnb and we couldn't be happier. A perfect little cottage in a lovely area of Paris. The welcome from Georgina was just what we needed and very informative. It's in an ideal location right near to the metro on line 12 and walking distance from the beautiful Sacre Coeur and Montmartre, which provides a wonderful view across Paris. Though be aware, there are lots of steps in Montmartre. The cottage is well equipped and clean with everything you could possibly need and made the perfect base for us to explore the city. The bed was very comfortable though the steps up to the room are very steep. A big thank you to Gail and Georgina for giving us a wonderful start to the first leg of our honeymoon. We would definitely stay there again or try another of Gail's properties.

We have thoroughly enjoyed staying in Maison in Montmartre. The little cottage includes everything required for our convenience and comfort. Location of the flat is also very convenient, being so close to the metro, shops and restaurants. We enjoyed a special birthday dinner at the Chamarré in rue Lamarck. We will recommend the little maison to others at home, and we would love to return. Thanks to Gail and her colleagues at PerfectlyParis. Au revoir.

What a great little oasis in Paris! We loved this little cottage! Thanks Gail for everything and to Georgina too for being so kind and welcoming to a tired traveler... If we ever get back to Paris I hope we can find this lovely cottage again.

Another excellent stay in Paris. It started with a brilliant brunch on Sunday at La Jolie Boheme just up the road. What a fun little cottage and so quiet as well. New Years Eve in Montmartre is always good fun and everyone so friendly. Thank you Gail and team for another excellent stay and we will be back again. We are planning our next visit already. Very best wishes!

We had a great stay in Montmartre. Very good location, easy commuting on the metro and bikes, and best of all, the local area is easy to merge into! Heaps of eating places, the village atmosphere is terrific. We spent several hours just wandering and not seeing a single tourist site. Georgina and Gail could not have been more helpful. Hope those who stay here after us have just a pleasant a time as we did. Cheers and best wishes.

What a wonderful stay we had in "Maison in Montmartre"! We enjoyed exploring the area and found some lovely places to eat especially L'etoile de Montmartre. We were lucky enough to be here for the Montmartre Wine Festival, which was brilliant with so any food stalls and marching bands. Two cats visited us on a regular basis and kept us entertained. The locals are very friendly and we couldn't have asked for a better or more convenient location in Paris to stay. Thank you PerfectlyParis. I hope we will visit again.

What a magical stay we have had here in Montmartre – every second has been so enjoyable. We have loved this wee cottage and are sad to say goodbye to it, the residents of the compound..., and of course the beautiful and amazing city. Thank you Paris! We now look forward to experiencing more of La belle France!

There is special magic about this place. A welcoming comfort upon opening the door after long days of exploring this magnificent city. Paris, of course, is amazing. In three days it has wrapped us around it's little fingers! Montmartre is such a friendly and beautiful area. We loved sitting with the locals watching the passing parade with drink in hand. Thank you for providing this sanctuary to visitors such as ourselves. Our visit to the "Little white house" will remain strong in our memories. Many many thanks.

Had a glorious week in this amazing city for our 5th anniversary. Discovered the wonderful PerfectlyParis for our honeymoon and vowed to return every 5 years. A huge thank you to the very organised friendly and helpful Gail and Preston. Enjoyed Jolie Boheme Restaurant at the top of the street. Relaxed and not too squashed. Anyone visiting the Catacombs beware of the queues. Sunday night the best time to go. Au revoir to our favourite city

We enjoyed our week stay in the cottage. It has been hot and humid and Georgina raced out and bought us a fan, without it we would really have suffered. It's a very safe and quiet haven and I especially liked our little visitor, the fluffy cat, who helped us to finish off some roast chicken! Next time in Paris, I hope it will not be as hot as this. It is such a great city to walk around and see all the sights and people.

25 June 2013

Thank you. This was a wonderful spot for my first exploration of Paris. Without a lot of French, we managed the Metro, buses and trains. Of course there is never enough time, but this convenient and tidy house helped our efforts.

10 June 2013

We have had the most wonderful stay in Paris and loved our Maison and it's location. Montmartre feels like home to us now, and we are so sad to leave. But, we take with us many treasured memories from this holiday and hope to return to Paris again in the next few years. When we do, we'll be sure to book our own little home through the friendly PerfectlyParis team again. We loved using the local bakers, buying fresh bread and pain Au chocolate, still warm from the oven, every few days. Although all the bakers nearby are really good, we especially loved the "artisan bakers". Merci et au revoir.

We had a lovely stay in this lovely little house. Paris greeted the New Year with fine rain and many tourists. We however wandered the streets of this quartier and were pleasantly surprised how calm and relaxed it is compared to the busy streets elsewhere.

Some tips from outside:

- Really good food and excellent service at "Etoile de Montmartre" just at the end of the street.
- Cakes, tarts, café et thé at "Mamie Gateaux" (66 rue du Cherche Midi). Closed on Sundays.
- Do not take the hop on hop off buses. It is nice to take the Paris bus lines and create your own little tour.

Thank you ever so much for this little haven in Paris – Great location and the cottage is ever so charming. Lara was a fantastic welcome party and we appreciated all of her tips... We certainly will book with you again Gail and will definitely recommend you to all those traveling to Paris. Till we meet again....

Perfectly Paris lived up to it's reputation as the perfect home away from home. The house was warm and cozy and in a great neighborhood. From the tasty mojitos next door to the tasty croissants down the hill and the delicious crepes across the way. Great place for people watching, walking, wine tasting and sightseeing. Thanks for everything!

Au revoir Paris!! Thanks Gail and Preston and everyone else who helped coordinate our trip.

27 August – 2 September 2012

Great location to Metro and restaurants. Lovely apartment, very comfortable. Walk out the door, turn right and continue down a couple of blocks for beautiful fresh seafood, fruit and veggies, pastries etc... and supermarkets. Pizza restaurant is great also Number 6 has great food too – lovely spot to have a beer on a hot afternoon. Au revoir.

PS Le Chat is a bit too friendly and loves to make itself at home in the apartment !!! If you open the windows...

Lovely place. Comfortable bed. Great area and lots of convenience stores, restaurants and bistros. Great to be just a few blocks from the metro. We found some of the best meals were just up the hill, Les Feuillades and chez Ginette. Friendly people as well. Our "big meal" of the week was at "Cafe qui parle" Excellent food and very friendly staff. Worth the 10-minute stroll down rue Caulaincourt. We felt a bit guilty having pizza in Paris but the place down the street is quite good and very reasonable. We found the neighborhood cat a wee bit too friendly and suspect the previous visitors gave the chat free run of the maison. Guests who don't enjoy cats might find this invasive.

Thanks to Preston and Gail. We hope to enjoy the services of Perfectly Paris someday soon. Cheers.

Hayley and Ian – Bistol, UK
2 June 2012

This is the 2nd time we have used PerfectlyParis and again the accommodation has been fantastic, clean and brilliant location. This house and courtyard are lovely and the neighbors so friendly, including the cat.

I just wish we had such wonderful boulageries in the UK... We will recommend PerfectlyParis to friends and family. Thanks to Gail and Preston, we will be in touch again next year.

Wow! What a great place to call home for the week. The metro is so close. The restaurants around here are fantastic. We can't thank Gail and Preston enough for the service provided.

A delight. Loved getting to know the 18th area (via many steps up and down). Paris was wonderful as ever in spite of the cold and rain.

Loved our little home away from home, esp. the hot towel bar in the bathroom. Very quiet away from the street. We met a local cat who jumped up on our window – and yes, we did feed him.

Great information book and especially the “Paris for You” and “Paris, Le Special Poche” both of which we used daily.

Preston was very friendly and helpful esp. when I goofed up the TV and needed to call him. The English stations were very nice to stay abreast of world news. We were present at the time of your '1st round' of presidential elections.

Suggestions on dishes: a few more smaller plates, a large bread knife, and a simple plastic spatula.

I would definitely recommend your place. Easy to book via the internet. The steps to our bedroom were very metaphoric of Montmartre.

31 December 2011

Dear Gail and Preston, Thank you for a most fabulous time. I loved my little quaint place. It was super cozy and I thoroughly enjoyed my towel warmer. It is truly the little luxuries in life. I truly appreciate the hospitality and responsiveness to my needs and questions. I definitely will be back!

30 October 2011

We've had the most awesome stay in this beautiful little cottage house in Montmartre – so warm, cozy and welcoming after a big day out sightseeing, eating and drinking! So lovely to stay out of the main tourist areas and experience the community around here. We've also enjoyed visits from one friendly persistent cat who sat on the kitchen window still meowing to be let in. Thank you so much “PerfectlyParis”, we'll be back!

Trudi and John – East Melbourne, Australia
12 October 2011

We loved our charming haven in the heart of old Montmartre. Its courtyard gardens and village atmosphere brought Montmartre alive.

Fiona – Auckland, New Zealand
1 October 2011

Absolutely perfect haven for me to enjoy my 'Paris escape' from – location fantastic, everything within easy reach, but feel totally out of the tourist rat-race and part of a 'real' community which I love! Thank you for sharing your cottage and Montmartre! I will be back.

The Gordons – NYC, USA
26 September 2011

Oh how we fell in love with this tiny cottage! It was the perfect spot for our family and I hope that we'll stay here again and again in the coming years. Thank you, especially to Gail for fielding so many of my annoying pre-trip questions and to Preston for meeting us, and again, fielding all of my questions. We had a wonderful stay, a great race, and I fell in love with Paris all over again.

Norm and Diane – Perth, Australia
18 September 2011

Thank you PerfectlyParis. Our stay at Maison in Montmartre was very enjoyable. Location was perfect – just minutes from the metro, yet within the unique setting of Montmartre, close to Sacre Coeur.

Moulin Rouge was superb – the best variety show we have seen. Many thanks to Gail, Preston and Georgina, dealing with you has been a pleasure.

8 September 2011

It certainly feels nice to feel at home away from home. Away from the bustle of Paris' main attractions yet so conveniently located, we couldn't have asked for a better experience. A few cartwheels down the street at Il Bugigattelo you will find amazing pasta and pizzas surely to satiate any appetite. Up the stairs to your left a few blocks you have Hope Café, they offer one of the best veggie burgers we've ever had. The nearby metro is indispensable making all of Paris easily within reach. A few helpful hints about the house: the heated towel rack will easily dry your clothes! Use kitchen as there are numerous markets nearby and it's far less expensive than going out.

If we had to be critical, we would note the following: house could us a few extra pillows, a few extra towels and a clock in the bedroom. That is almost it. We were very comfortable, the area nice and quiet and the people very friendly. We would certainly stay here again. Open a few windows, open a bottle of wine and profitez de Paris!

I loved Maison in Montmartre! It was a perfect location for everything I wanted to do. Going up the steps to the metro made every journey simple. For late nights out, Café Francoeur was a comfortable place to have a glass of wine and a late bite (up both sets of stairs, left 2 blocks or so). Thanks for the lovely spot!

P.S. Thanks for the arrondissement guide de poche – indispensable!

Maia – San Francisco, CA, USA
11 July 2011

We enjoyed the cozy little house and appreciated the friendly and attentive staff. A new restaurant opened, up the block, the day before we arrived: La Jolie Bohème – great food, comfortable setting. The PerfectlyParis restaurant recommendations were also fun to sample. So glad we found this place to stay!

P.S. Our entire party of 9 people stayed in 3 PerfectlyParis apartments in this neighborhood. All 3 were unique and charming; we enjoyed visiting each other and having home-y space to make our own.

We are very sorry to leave this charming little house after only three days! We would have liked to stay longer but had to return to base in Switzerland and England.

We felt very much at home here and enjoyed our short stay very much. Everything in this cute house is spotless and of high standards. We especially enjoyed the location of the little house at the end of a narrow passage, which then opened out onto a small courtyard.

Our two grandchildren, who live in Paris like their parents, enjoyed their visits to La Maison in Montmartre.

We hope to come back one day and stay for longer.
