June 2017

Apartment was clean and well kept, and beautifully decorated. During our stay, Paris had record hot weather, but all the windows and the fan kept the place cool. The location was very convenient to shops, cafes, and a five-minute walk to Sacre Coeur. Montmartre is a lovely neighbourhood. Gail was very responsive to email both before and during our stay, and even sent a message to check in on us shortly after we arrived. Gail, thanks so much for being a great host! We had everything we needed, and thanks for being so easy to reach.

May 2017

10 years ago we were in Paris. We had the best time then and it was a pleasure to be here again in this nice apartment and beautiful city.

Stephan Hihn – Germany
May 2017

Everything was great, wonderful apartment in excellent location. Very helpful hosts. Next time again.

Hilary Jacobs – USA
April 2017

Lovely apartment in a beautiful neighbourhood.

April 2017

Gail was a great host and her place is in a great location in the Montmartre neighbourhood. Gail was very responsive and gave us tips and clear directions leading up to our trip. Upon arrival there was a bottle of wine waiting for us and also a great list of recommended restaurants in the area. The apartment is close to many restaurants, café's, bakery's, metro stops and Sacre-Coeur which has one of the best views in the city.

'La comunicación con Gail fue muy fluida, fue super atenta y nos ayudo con todas nuestras consultas. La llegada fue bastante fácil, ya que llegamos a la estación de trenes que esta relativamente cerca, así que nos tomamos un taxi. El departamento es soñado, con el característico estilo parisino. La vista divina ! Es super cómodo y muy bien equipado. Utilizamos la cama del cuarto y el sofá cama en el living, ambos muy cómodos. Queda 3 pisos por escalera en un edificio antiguo y tranquilo. La ubicación es inmejorable ! Una zona de restaurantes, bracitos, pleno montmatre ! Super recomendable ! sin duda volveríamos !'

Hi Gail! Everything was absolutely great! We really loved the apartment, our stay was lovely!

The communication with Gail was very smooth,; she was super attentive and helped us with all our queries. Arriving was fairly easy, as we arrived at the train station, which is relatively close, so we took a taxi. The apartment is dreamy, with the characteristic Parisian style. The divine view! It is super comfortable and very well equipped. We used the bed in the room and the sofa bed in the living room, both very comfortable. It is 3 floors by stairs in an old and quiet building. The location cannot be beat! An area of restaurants, bracos, full Montmartre! Super recommendable! We would definitely go back!

Great apartment in a really great location. Had everything we needed. Whole experience was hassle-free.

Hi Gail, Thanks so much for the great apartment! I think you have a nice, smart system in place with reliable people who are available in your absence. Queen's Corner is a great flat that is located very well for traveling both east/west and to the left bank (the small hill from Clichy is also a nice mini workout for those not used to a bit of a climb). The neighborhood is lovely, vibrant and picturesque in its own right and all of Paris is at your footsteps. Highly recommend calling this a home base for your stay in Paris.

January 2017

We have now stayed five times here in Montmartre and Queen's Corner is absolutely the most spacious apartment and it has by far the best views. The crossing on Rue Yvonne le Tac and Rue des Martyrs is definitely the heart of Montmartre. We have never been closer to the metro, bookshop and the bakery Coquelicot. We had a good lunch at Le Templier de Montmartre on Rue des Abbesses. To conclude I would like to mention the efficiency of Gail and Georgina for fixing the wifi so quickly. We hope to return soon.

January 2017

Centrally located in Montmartre, Queens Corner is a perfect place to stay in Paris. It has windows overlooking a lively crossing (but not noisy and even silent at night - this is a residential area where people respect each other). The metro is nearby (1 min.), but in the morning, we often preferred walking down the hill through the Rue des Martyrs to the Grand Boulevards or the Louvre. The kitchen has everything to prepare your own food if you can resist the temptation of the many good restaurants. Gail is very attentive and responds to mails/SMS really fast and accurately.

January 2017

What a wonderful first trip to Paris! So many things to see and do and drink and eat. Gail was a huge help. We loved this apartment despite untimely problems with the internet, but we were really too busy to even notice. Very sad to leave, maybe we will just have to come back.

Richard Pollitt – Louisville, Kentucky
December 2016

Listing was accurate and the host was a great help before and during our stay!

Matt Mandich – Toronto, Canada
December 2016

The flat is exactly as described. The location was great for restaurants, proximity to historical areas, and the metro. The apartment is spacious and has everything you need. Would stay there again for sure. Thanks for a great stay.

Ian Joyce – USA
4 December 2016

Queen's Corner is in the heart of one of our favourite places in Montmartre. There are restaurants, markets, and things to see within an easy walk. And the Metro is a block away, for easy access to all of Paris. We thoroughly enjoyed our stay at Queen's Corner.

Hope Carteli - USA
November 2016

Gail's wonderful apartment was a perfect home base for exploring Paris, especially with a five-year-old. It's a welcoming and cozy flat with all the tools necessary to cook and be comfortable. We really enjoyed the immediate area and all it had to offer. Our first day, it was a beautiful, easy 35-minute walk from Queens Corner to the Louvre--can't ask for a better welcome to Paris than that! Georgina, who was waiting for us when we arrived, was knowledgeable and walked us through the apartment and all its instructions (which are not many, and quite intuitive at any rate.) The kitchen was perfect for our needs. It was a delightful, but brief stay--we would certainly book Queens Corner again!

Claire Bellia – Malta
November 2016

This is a lovely corner apartment in the heart of Montmartre - full of light and the close to the great boutiques and restaurants in the area. Recommended!

Thank you for an amazing stay. This was our first stay in a PerfectlyParis apartment and we will definitely return soon! The apartment was fantastic in every aspect. Hugely comfortable bed, very clean and tidy, and the views were a delight. Having been to Paris before, we didn't want to do the typical touristy things and being in Montmartre was perfect for us. In fact, we barely left Montmartre. The local life going on around us was interesting to observe from the apartment and it really felt like a little village within a city. If you like Italian food we found a fantastic restaurant, very reasonably priced just off the main road called "Piccolo Cartello", run by an Italian family- absolutely top notch! Thank you, Gail, for being so amazing with answering our many emailed questions so promptly and everything from the warm welcome and complimentary bottle of wine upon our arrival. We would not hesitate in recommending PerfectlyParis to all of our friends.

Virginia and Joe – Geelong, Australian
October 2016

We absolutely love this apartment. This is our third stay with "PerfectlyParis" and this would be our best choice. We did most of our cooking in the apartment with all of the facilities and the wonderful food available close by. We didn't need to go out for dinner – we pushed the table to the window – opened the windows and the atmosphere of the street was ours – what a lovely view. Thank you for making this wonderful apartment available. I absolutely love the chandeliers.

Erin Smith – UK
October 2016

This was the first time we have stayed in an Airbnb after recommendations from our friends, and Gail has set the bar very high!! Was a brilliant first time, the apartment was stunning and in a brilliant location in Montmartre. Gail was incredibly helpful, both before our stay and during - we had a few questions whilst we were there and Gail replied straight away and nothing was too much trouble. The apartment was clean, spacious and the bed was sooooo comfortable! Where it is, was perfect for us, we did a lot of walking and ate a lot of amazing food. Would highly recommend Gail and this apartment, and my husband and I will definitely be back!

Rachel Tranello – New York, New York
October 2016

This was my first time using Airbnb, and I could not have had a better experience! Gail was beyond accommodating, she responded to questions I had, within minutes every time, and she was able to make last minute arrangements for us as we arrived later than anticipated. On our arrival, she had every single detail laid out and organized in a binder, virtually answering any questions we would have about how the appliances work, restaurant and shopping suggestions, and even some interesting articles on the area! On arrival, it just felt special. Her home was clean, cozy, and in a wonderful location. It really felt like home – close to everything, and only a short walk to the Metro. The area was upbeat, vibrant, and we got a real sense of community. All in all, we had an amazing time, and Gail's lovely home made our experience that much more lovely. Thank you so very much!

September 2016

After many days in the Latin Quartier and Le Marais we just thought it was time for a change, and what great choice this apartment turned out to be. It was almost like being in Paris for the first time in this lovely village atmosphere. The apartment is a good size for two, and has all the facilities and comforts we expect when travelling. Both Georgina and Gail were very obliging with info and tips on the area. Some of our favourite spots were the old style cafés all very close by. We will definatley come back.

Chris Forehan – Victoria, AU
September 2016

Georgina greeted us and was flexible with our arrival time. She was very helpful and welcoming. The apartment was all that we expected and more, in a fantastic location. Being on the corner, every room provided great views of the bustling area. The size and brightness of the apartment were wonderful. Its location was ideal, and the info booklet provided was very helpful. It was also a nice surprise to meet you Gail, completely by chance in a café some way away from the apartment!

Nicholas Stefanovich – California, USA
September 2016

Staying at the Queens Corner apartment was a marvelous experience and a great way to really experience Paris's 18th. The apartment is near so many great restaurants and shops and is a quick walk to the Basilica of Sacre-Coeur and nearby metros.

Asaf Hotnik – Tel Aviv, Israel
September 2016

We have found our stay at the apartment to be very lovely and comfortable. The location is excellent, just 10 minutes from Sacré-Cœur, 2 minutes from the Abbesses Metro and close to many bars, restaurants, patisseries and boulangeries. The apartment was equipped with everything we needed and the washer and dryer proved to be very handy. The decor was also quite lovely with the big windows and wooden floor, and the bathroom was quite small but cozy. Notice the apartment is on the 3rd floor, but the view to Montmartre and Pigalle was totally worth it. We recommend it for your next visit to Paris!

Julie Smith – New York
August 2016

Truly delightful from start to finish! Gail was very responsive (quick and detailed) to our pre-arrival communication and her greeter was there when we arrived at the flat. Gail has created a book that includes all types of advice and suggestions. A bottle a wine was a wonderful extra touch. The apartment is a doable 3 flights up a beautiful wooden spiral staircase. The apartment is light filled with windows in every room on all sides. The sounds of the lively cafes and street musicians were quite enjoyable and can be easily muted when you shut the windows. The shower/sink room is petite and separate from the WC. The bed was solid and comfortable. Montmartre is definitely a happening, hip neighborhood that just happens to include a few 'tourist' destinations. For your daily juice habit, try Juice Lab. You really have your pick of every kind of food and drink including what locals consider some of the best coffee at Cuilliers (1 min from the apartment). You are a short walk to The Sacre Coeur, Museum of Montmartre (great gardens and views), and a relatively unknown small vineyard. There are many quiet cobblestone streets and steps leading to more lovely streets, architecture, and cafes (check out Place Dalida).

Muireann McGuinness – Dublin, Ireland
August 2016

Gail was very prompt at responding and sent on some very helpful information. Georgina, our greeter, answered all our questions and provided us with all necessary info about the apartment and area. The apartment is lovely, has a very Parisienne feel to it. It's very bright inside and is in a wonderful location. It was very clean also. I did feel that it was a bit smaller than advertised but the charm of the place makes up for it and there's plenty of room for two people.

Rachelle Greer – Victoria, Australia
July 2016

We were welcomed by a kind host and complimentary bottle of wine. Nothing was too much trouble. Fun, vibrant neighbourhood with great food options close to some of the best parts of Paris.

Ryan Rodgers – Philadelphia, PA
July 2016

Gail made me feel right at home from the second I arrived. She greeted me at the door of the flat by name, and had a bottle of wine waiting for me upon my arrival! I do feel as if the description of the listing was accurate. The space and location were great. I traveled by myself and was only there for 3 nights, my next visit to Paris, I would absolutely stay at this location again! I didn't really get to explore the neighborhood too much until my last day in Paris, but it is a great location! So much fun stuff within walking distance. Restaurants, cafes, etc. Everything was great! Thank you for providing me with a great home while I was away from my home! I look forward to visiting again! From the photos, I did expect the place to be a touch bigger than the photos, but honestly it just absolutely perfect!

Paul Browning – UK
July 2016

We arrived slightly early but that was no problem and there was already someone in the apartment to meet us and show us everything. It's in a great district in Paris - we loved staying in the Montmartre area it's near loads of bars and nightlife. Loved the apartment and had a really great time. Thanks so much. It's very central in Paris, it's in the best district (I think) we had a really lovely time.

David Gifford – Kingston upon Thames, UK
July 2016

A perfect place to stay in Montmartre, very close to Sacre Coeur with wonderful walks round the streets and especially so if you are interested in the history of Paris and like great food! The flat was clean, tidy, and everything worked. Thanks Gail - a great stay and I am sure we will be back!

Elizabeth Gifford – London

A perfect corner to explore Montmartre, beautiful walks through the streets, fabulous food, (especially Le Miroir) and even a raucous Euro 2016 semi-final to experience! Thank you so much.

Christine Carter – Sydney, Australia
29 June 2016

Another wonderful week in Queen's. Thank you again for the perfect spot to experience Parisian life.

Jessamy Wood – UK
June 2016

We had a great long weekend exploring Paris from Queens Corner. Bright, light and airy with everything we needed. On a corner so we could look down the avenues towards Abbesses and watch the world go by. Very central in Montmartre, right in the middle of the huddle and bustle. We were glad of the double-glazing, as it was the Euro football tournament so quite a few fans in the streets! On the 3rd floor though so almost silent with the windows shut. 2 mins to the Sacre Couer, only 15 mins walk from the Gare du Nord train station. A perfect base :-)

James Wood – Exter, UK
June 2016

Thank you for providing such a beautiful base for our relaxing Paris weekend. Very centrally located on the corner – a great space to watch the world go by. We'll be exploring other PerfectlyParis places soon.

Shauna Sheehy – Bray, Ireland
June 2016

A perfect location to explore and enjoy Paris. Great hosts - would highly recommend this apartment.

Prateep Siriissranan – Bangkok, Thailand
June 2016

The apartment is really beautiful and perfect! We spent good times looking out of window to see the Beautiful view of Paris. There're lots of good restaurants nearby. We can walk to the train station and it's very convenience to walk to lots of tourist spots in Montmartre. The surrounding areas are safe places to walk around. The bed is comfortable. The person in charge of the apartment is really kind and welcome. We really recommend this place for a perfect stay in Paris!

Shana Hinze – Miami, Florida
June 2016

Gail and Perfectly Paris were so professional, courteous and knowledgeable about the area and traveler's needs. The level of service I received was on par with a 5-star hotel concierge service. The communication was excellent, they even sent out info regarding top tourist sites being inaccessible due to flooding. I highly recommend staying with Perfectly Paris - they think of everything and have their travelers' best interest in mind; you receive individual service that hotels simply can't compete with. We have just arrived in Miami and I wanted to thank you for such a fantastic experience! The apartment was so charming and lovely and the excellent communication and the fact that you guys thought of everything such as wine opener, maps, etc. you even emailed when major sites were closed. Without Perfectly Paris I am certain our visit would not have been perfect! Thank you!!

Lovely apartment in Paris, we quickly realised that this was the most charming part of the city, (Montmartre). We wanted to stay in Montmartre the whole trip and had to drag ourselves into the city to see all of the obligatory sites, (we compromised and saw a few). Thank you for an enchanting stay :-) From Milwaukee – much love! Gabriel Perez

Amy & Patrick – New York, New York
May 2016

We had such an incredible time staying at Queens Corner. The apartment could not have been more perfect. The location was superb, and the apt was so clean, charming, and we felt so at ease. We could not have asked for a better experience. Can't wait to come back! It was so lovely and the area so romantic, we got engaged in the living room!! What a surprise! Needless to say it was an unforgettable experience. We would be overjoyed to come back for our honeymoon! Thank you so much for a lovely stay.

David & Pauline Adams – Adelaide, Australia
May 2016

Staying in a PerfectlyParis apartment was recommended to us by a friend and we are glad we took it up. Loved the feel of the apartment and surrounding neighbourhood. We will certainly be passing the recommendation on to other friends. Cheers :-)

Sharon Gibbard - Australia
May 2016

Whilst our stay at Queens Corner was brief due to technical problems in the building it is in a beautiful location and is bright and airy. Our host Gail was very responsive to our concerns and relocated us immediately. She made us feel very comfortable and I would be delighted to stay with her again.

Elizabeth Tyran – Ohio, USA
May 2016

Georgina who greeted us was great. My friend and I fell in love with this place for the bright natural light and the charming views of Parisian style buildings of Montmartre. The neighborhood was beyond fun to explore. Great food, lots of shops, and go see the drag show Michou if you can! Another great thing to do is take a wine and cheese class through the company Gail will suggest to you, Cookin w Class, it was so great and she got us a 20% discount. Wishing we were back in this apt right now. Thank you Perfectly Paris

Mike Jacobson – New York, NY
April 2016

I honestly feel like I may not ever stay at a better put together Airbnb. The check in process/place/app/everything was amazing. Loved the place, loved the location, and Gail+crew were very communicative via email/anything else. It was perfect. Thank you so much!

Jax Brousseau – Houston, Texas
April 2016

Amazing! Our flight arrived very early and they were there to let us in. The apartment was gorgeous and very clean. Very close to the metros. The neighborhood of Montmartre was perfect. We will definitely book Queens Corner when return to Paris.

This was our first time in Paris and we had an amazing stay in Queen's Corner. The neighbourhood in Montmartre is gorgeous. Great food, friendly people, and so much to see. At sunset you must go to Sacre Coeur for the view, you will see all of Paris. We will be back.

Sigrid Jaschke – Villingen, Germany
March 2016

Die Kommunikation vor meinem Besuch war extrem gut und umfangreich, das Treffen im Haus hat zuverlässig geklappt. Wir wurden sehr freundlich empfangen und man kam uns auch in zwei Sonderwünschen sehr entgegen. Die kleine Wohnung liegt verkehrsgünstig und bietet alles, was man braucht in nächster Nähe. Die 63 Stufen kann man auch vor dem Frühstück oder mit Gepäck sehr gut bewältigen. Wer daran gewöhnt ist, bei offenem Fenster zu schlafen, wird sich allerdings am Lärm der Straßen und vor allem der Gaststätten rund ums Haus stören - es sei denn, er geht nicht vor 2 Uhr zu Bett! ;) Das Haus ist alt und das merkt man nicht nur an den schrägen Fußböden, sondern auch daran, dass sich manche Türen nur mit viel Anstrengung schließen oder öffnen lassen. Dass das Schlafzimmer im Durchgang zwischen Wohnraum, Dusche und Toilette liegt, hat uns nicht gestört, da wir nur zu zweit waren. Die Wohnung war sehr sauber, was nicht für alle Töpfe und Tassen galt, aber das kann natürlich mal passieren, wenn Leute ankommen und die am gleichen Tag Abgereisten es mit dem Spülen nicht so genau nahmen... Insgesamt war es ein sehr angenehmer Aufenthalt!

Thank you so much for your friendly hospitality in this charming old flat. We got use to the very special doors and windows that have their own way of opening and closing, and really enjoyed this characterful apartment in the middle of Montmartre. We appreciated the proximity of the metro, supermarket, wonderful bakeries as well as the restaurants and, of course, the beautiful Sacre Coeur. One week is too short for Paris but we made the most of it.

Phoebe Dunstan – Sydney, Australia
December 2015

Such a wonderful apartment! It was the perfect experience and such a great location! We were in Paris for my cousins wedding and New Year's Eve. From the apartment we were able to go for a daily run down to the seine, walk to sights and do our groceries. It was a perfect place to rest and call our own. Check in and out was smooth and easy. We enjoyed relaxing, cooking and the bed/bathroom were both up to standard. Will definitely stay again!

Kayler and Lauren – New York, USA
18 October 2015

This was our second stay at a PerfectlyParis apartment – the first was 7 years ago at Rooftop Vista when we first started dating, and here we are this time around newly engaged. Your apartments have a special place in our hearts. We appreciated the warm in person greeting and bottle of wine, as well as all the thoughtful amenities this visit offered. The great natural light and great views made us look forward to come home. We loved walking down the Rue Martyrs and exploring all the local ingredients offered by the stores. And of course a croissant and espresso down the street each morning. Thank you again, we look forward to coming back.

Marilyn and Jack – Toronto, Canada
15 October 2015

As usual enjoyed everything, the view and never mind the excitement of the fireworks one night! Enjoyed local restaurants, especially Relais Gascon. The 63 steps were no big deal. Close to the metro. Local boulangeries terrific. Great place to spend a week.

Kent and Struan Cheng – Melbourne, Australia

20 September 2015

We had a wonderful stay at Queen's Corner. The apartment is bright, airy and well furnished. It is conveniently located near the metro. We have thoroughly enjoyed our time in Paris – delicious food, museums and the many beautiful sights. Climbing the stairs have made us fit for the rest of the trip. Thanks Gail and team for all your assistance in making our stay in Montmartre memorable.

Anita and Ed – Sydney, Australia
September 2015

Whilst this was our first trip to Paris this was our first time with PerfectlyParis and in an apartment. That said, it has been a positive and wonderful experience having the opportunity to live like a Montmartre local for a week. Highlights have been the local restaurants Le Relais Gascon, Le Miroir and Les Tables des Anges. We also liked the boulangerie Le Grenier à Pain that has amazing croissants and pastries. Rue Lepic is great for local produce. We would also recommend a trip to the local Puces de St Quen which has amazing antiques /bric-a-brac and so close to Abbesses. Thank you Gail and the team who have been most helpful and professional.

Helen, Tom, Loic and Hessele – Yorkshire, UK
July 26 2015

This is our third stay with PerfectlyParis and we have loved each of the apartments. We took the bus everywhere, as it was such a good way to see the city and avoid the summer heat in the metro. They have big maps at the metro station that they will give to you free of charge. We hope you enjoy your stay as much as we did.

Paul and Sylvie - Toronto, Canada
July 2015

A fabulous stay in a great apartment and neighbourhood – thanks! We had a great stay, and cooked some excellent meals with all of the yummy fresh and inexpensive foods available at the open air markets around town...the particular one we went to was at Bastille, which is one of the biggest. So much fresh produce, cheeses, meats, fish and seafood to be had. We had just as much fun wandering around different areas of town as we did in any tourist attraction – so don't fear to go exploring. Enjoy your stay as much as we did.

Kellie Wright – Australia
June 2015

We were greeted on arrival by a very friendly woman who explained the area, tips where to eat and other info. Was very helpful. The proximity to bars, cafes and the metro is wonderful. The apartment is in a lovely spot to sit and have a glass of wine and watch the world go by.

Chelsea Hill – BC, Canada
June 2015

Georgina greeted us and shared info about the neighbourhood and apartment. We were happy to read the plentiful guidebooks and maps available. Washer worked well. The space is bright and great for people watching at night. We travelled with our baby and Gail had a playpen set up for us (rented). This was very convenient. Thanks for an excellent stay. For those thinking of staying: Very close to Abbesses metro, award winning charcuterie, fromagerie and boulangerie! Reasonably priced ready to go dinners in the area for those making food at the flat. At the bottom of then 'hill' but quick walk to see a lovely sunset. Lots of restaurants and stores. Montmartre is an excellent location. Apart is on the 3rd floor with no lift.

Sandy and David – New Zealand

17 August 2014

Thank you again PerfectlyParis for another amazing week. Somehow there is always another corner to walk around and explore. Have seen and done so many new things and hope next year when we return we can continue the adventure. Always sad packing up and leaving the key behind! Thank you.

Sylvie and Peter - Canada
9 July 2014

Best time to go to the super market is around 2pm. The best coffee is Café Tabac 1bis rue Ravignan (Australian Style coffee). If you know how to speak a little bit of French try Autour de Midi et Minuit. Food was divine. They also have a very cool jazz club in the basement. We very much enjoyed having an apartment in Montmartre. Compared to the rest of the city, it felt more open and relaxed. Next time we hope to come back to Paris in the winter to see Paris in another season.

Nancy Epstein – USA
6 July 2014

We loved the energy of this area. Loved the apartment. So cosy and bright. Loved our vacation and sorry it is over!

Roland – Switzerland
June 2014

We had a great time, wedding anniversary, sales shopping, sun and rain - and lived in our preferred corner of MONTMARTRE. Gail was very responsive, especially as we recognized late Saturday night, that we didn't have our key with us :- ( Merci Gail, it was a pleasure to stay in this flat. We were lucky there - it was nice to be in the lively area - just inside of the Parisian life...

Chris Carter – Sydney, Australia
9 April 2014

Loved the apartment! White, light and bright. All we wanted!!! So thank you providing such a perfect home for us for the week. After walking all day it was a delight to return to the apartment. We will definitely return.

Kate and Nick – DC, USA
February 2014

Great month at Queen's Corner. The neighbourhood is fantastic for eating out or in and a perfect authentic base for exploration. Thanks Gail and team!

Gerard and Margaret Ritchie – UK
16 January 2014

Once again Gail you have organised a brilliant apartment for us. We loved the view and even found one or two new restaurants to visit. This year was the turn of the tour Montparnasse, what a view looking down on the Eiffel Tower. The great news is that the weather never seems to bother us! Already looking forward to next year. Thanks again.

Pauline Lipman and Rico Gutstein – USA
24 December 2013

Ok we are finishing a week here with pretty good weather for Paris in December, of course because we live in Chicago. Our highlights were Rue des Martyrs, Rue des Abbesses, Rue Lepic....the food is just great. La Mascotte for their "formule" of 9 oysters and a glass of Sancerre for 12.50 euros, the baguette or ficelle de tradition at Le Grenier à Pain, the tarts at Les Petits Mitron on rue Lepic and so much more....fresh ravioli from all around, les crevettes cuit from the fishmonger and on and on....We ate in as much as we ate out! Other highlights for us were the museum at the Institute du Monde Arab and the Musée de l'Orangerie with Monet's amazing series of water paintings and also a soon to end exhibition on Frida and Diego. Thank you for a wonderful place! Happy New Year!!!

Kerrie and James – NSW, Australia
13 October 2013

My son I have spent a very comfortable 8 nights here at Queen's Corner. We have loved the apartment – it has been warm and cosy with all the amenities we have needed. Just lovely to come home to each day. We have loved staying in Montmartre – such a lovely atmosphere. I could wander the streets all day. Thank you Gail for your exceptional organisation and quick replies to all of my emails and queries. It has been a pleasure corresponding with you. Thank you Miranda for renting out your lovely apartment. If and when we return to Paris we will definitely book our accommodation with PerfectlyParis and will recommending you to our family and friends. The final touch to our stay was the wonderful street parade for the festival of Montmartre. Au revoir Montmartre and merci beaucoup!!!

Clans, Catol and Zoe – San Jose, C.A
23 September 2013

The three of us had a wonderful time at Queen's Corner. We loved having a separate living room. After a couple of days and lots of practice at the metro we didn't even seem to mind the stairs anymore :-). The location is fantastic and we appreciated having free wifi and phone calls. We hope to come back soon and stay at another PerfectlyParis apartment. We will warmly recommend your service.

Penelope and Glenn Hill - Australia
September 2013

Lovely place to stay! Try taking the metro or velo to Parc Monceau, which on the weekend was full of, French families with picnics. Merci PerfectlyParis!

Christine and Les Cook – Hollingsworth, England
22 May 2013

We have had a wonderful time here in Paris at Queen's Corner, despite the rain! Abbesses is our favourite part of Paris. This is our 5th visit to this area but our 1st time with PerfectlyParis. We loved the apartment, even if the stairs did not seem to get any easier the more times we climbed them, and we will certainly stay in a PerfectlyParis apartment again. We would recommend it to anyone looking for a typically Parisian apartment at a reasonable price. It is perfectly situated for the metro and you are spoilt for choices of restaurants, patisseries etc.... C'est parfait!

Thank you Gail and PerfectlyParis for a lovely stay at a home away from home. The second time for us.

We have thoroughly enjoyed our 2 weeks at Queen's Corner, and feel that we had the time to enjoy and get into the Parisian way of life. Out for the bread in the morning and often bringing in deli food at night. The local shops are a delight and I got to know the shopkeepers in our favourite areas. We used the buses most of the time and with our Navigo passes, it was so easy to go from bus to bus exploring different parts of Paris. We have been to Paris 5 times before but this time did not do the tourist things, we just tried to do the Parisian things. All this in spite Isabel's chronic sciatica which she didn't have when we booked. As a 74 year old, she is still pretty fit and managed the stairs pretty well. If we manage to come back to Paris, we will certainly book with PerfectlyParis. If all of your apartments are as well appointed as Queen's Corner we will look forward to the next time.

Douglas aged 3 loved Paris from arriving by Eurostar at Gare du Nord, taxi to his "home" for 3 nights, to the Eiffel Tower (he climbed the stairs), Bateaux Mouches, Musee D'Orsay and Centre Georges Pompidou. He also loved the squares and parks with "carousels" and French children. The apartment is lovely and has been a home-away-from-home. We hope to return soon.

It snowed. It rained. But that didn't stop the Parisians, and it didn't stop us. We got out to the Cité de la Musique, (highly recommended) – the Musée D'Orsay, the Orangerie, the Marché La Chapelle, Marché Aligre, an opera at Garnier, a concert at Eglise St Germain. All very recommended for those who love food, music and art. After all these daytime and evening wonders, it was great coming back to Queen's Corner to enjoy a dinner of wine, escalope de veau, baguette, cheese etc.... all purchased from the shops on Rue des Abbesses. Easy access to all parts of Paris via metro, but we found the 9eme, 2eme and 1eme arrondissements to be walkable.

What a find for a different and memorable honeymoon – disappearing in Paris for a week! We highly recommend the wine tasting at O Chateau in La Halles – Very educational and as generous with the wine as advertised. It was really great to be able to come "home" at the end of each busy day. We'll definitely recommend PerfectlyParis to any friends who are looking to come here. Thanks Again.

To anyone who follows :-) Welcome to Paris! Elaine and I did really enjoy our stay in Montmartre, and to live at this perfect spot on the hill: Queen's Corner:

- Lovely decorated
- 2 steps from the Metro
- In the middle of Montmartre

Things we enjoyed:

- The Cruise up and down the Seine. It sound very much like a tourist trap, but it really was rather a splendid experience.
- Eiffel Tower at night. Very beautiful
- Market de Belleville. If you wanna see “the otherside” of Paris, go and see the multiethnic market with all sorts of vegetables, meat bread, fruits. (Tuesday and Friday) Boulevard de Belleville.
- Il Cugini. We had delicious pizza's and wine there. Try it as an Italian break.

Thanks for the lovely holiday at Queen's Corner- Perfectly Paris and Holiday Velvet.

A fab alternative to a hotel to end our month-long trip. Thoroughly enjoyed staying at Queen's Corner and would recommend it to anyone. Fun to pretend to actually live in Paris as a local for a few days. ...and the stairs help justify all the eating!

Queen's Corner has been a really special retreat to come to during our short and busy time in Paris. Such a great location and delightful streets to wander by day and night. As first time visitors to Paris we felt this apartment was instrumental in giving us an authentic Paris experience. Thank you Preston for your warm welcome and valuable information. Merci beaucoup!

We had a fantastic week in Montmartre and it was made especially great by our wonderful accommodation here at Queen's Corner. This apartment could not have been more perfect for our week's sojourn: it is in a superb location and so well stocked of everything, not to mention so comfortable. We will definitely be recommending Montmartre as an area in which to stay for a trip to Paris. There is so much to do here and lovely to wonder around day and night. And we will definitely be recommending Queen's Corner and Perfectly Paris. Merci beaucoup!

4 November 2011

Lovely place, clean, tidy with a great ambiance – all helped to make this an enjoyable carefree week sojourn for us. Very much appreciate easy access to metro and the information booklet left on the table. Also thank you for the speedy reply to our initial queries Gail and the prompt attention to detail. We have no hesitation in recommending this haven to our friends and family.

Thank you Gail and Preston for the help booking. This is a wonderful apartment and with information on the neighborhood. I love the Montmartre area and plan on returning again as soon as possible. Queen's Corner is a wonderful place to stay only steps away from great restaurants and all the amenities.

We enjoyed our stay at Queen's Corner. Preston was helpful and informative. We will be recommending this apartment and perfectlyparis.com to our friends. The neighborhood was great; we enjoyed all the small shops and restaurants. It was nice to see another area of Paris and to spend a week living like a Parisian.

Perfectly Paris Queen's Corner, comfortable amenities, perfect location. Lots to see and do within walking distance. Close to metro and buses for easy travel to Paris sites to top it off, healthy aerobics up and down three flights of (63) stairs. All in all, an excellent experience.

Thank you for a wonderful stay! This apartment is so nice and cosy and we prefer it so much more than a hotel room. The area is so great and we will definitely be back some day! And also, the pizzas are great at the corner of the rue des Abbesses and rue des Martyrs.

Birthe and Kim – Denmark

We had a lovely stay in your apartment, much more relaxed than the hotel would have been. We had two very nice dinners at your recommendation Le Relais Gascon. Also an experience at vegetarian Au Grain de Folie – a real cosy and intimate place. We packed a lot of Paris into our five days, much of it in the off tourist areas – great. If you like Japanese gardens then we recommend Albert Kahn jardin and musée, 14 rue de Port Boulogne-Billancourt (line 10).
