We absolutely loved staying in this wonderful Parisian apartment. We enjoyed the neighbourhood and the fresh market on Wednesday morning was a true delight. The apartment was beautifully appointed and we had everything we needed for our weeks stay. It was also exceptionally clean and the linen and towels were great. The spacious apartment was comfortable and we felt very much at home. The team at Perfectly Paris were phenomenal. Their communication was top notch and everything was accurate and instructions very clear. This is the second time we have used Perfectly Paris, and I would definitely use them again for our next visit. We really felt like locals (even if we didn't look it!!!! 😊) and having the bus, metro, supermarket and boulangerie on our doorstep was amazing. Thank you so much Gail and the Perfectly Paris Team.

A mere “grand remerciement” to the Salmons for my stay in their lovely home during my latest visit to Paris does not begin to express my true gratitude. Although I have lived in Paris and also stayed in many beautiful, well stocked apartments during my too numerous to count visits, “Damremont Classique” stands out. Instantly, I felt the heart and soul of the owners in each well thought out and carefully planned detail. Truly this apartment is a home, not just a rental. The greatest compliment that I can give is to say that if it were for sale, I would very seriously consider buying this home away from home. The lovely antiques, layout, size, and location are perfect for me. Certainly, I will return on future visits. Staying in “Damremont Classique” would not have been possible without the connection through the magnificent Gail Boisclair of PerfectlyParis who truly is “perfect” with her business savvy, knowledge of her market and warm, intelligent personality and lovely smile. Her greeter Georgina is every bit as lovely and welcoming with a delightful and charming demeanor and ever so helpful in every way. More than business contacts, both Gail and Georgina are like caring friends. To sum it up, everything was truly “PerfectlyParis” and perfect in every way. With infinite gratitude to the Salmons, Gail and Georgina. A la prochaine!

My boyfriend and I stayed at this lovely apartment in November for 12 nights and fell in love as soon as we arrived. Georgina met us at the apartment at an earlier pre-scheduled time and explained everything about the apartment and about the neighborhood. They have a binder for the guest with a lot of useful information that comes in handy. There is an amazing cheese shop nearby, supermarket, bars and plenty of restaurants to choose from. The Lamarck METRO station is a lovely short walk away and very convenient. The apartment itself is so beautiful, charming and chic! The apartment has all the necessities that you will need during your stay. I honestly can't say one bad thing about this lovely place, we were sorry to leave! Gail was very helpful with any questions that we had, she responded very quickly to emails and checked in to see how we were doing. I definitely recommend this place! It's simply everything you can imagine Paris to be.

We loved everything about the apartment. It really felt like a home and a haven at the end of a day of sightseeing. The bed is very comfortable. It was quiet, and the apartment contained everything we needed. We would love to stay there again.

Thank you for sharing your lovely apartment. It was our first trip to Paris and your apartment was exactly how I envisioned it to be. Our dinner guest from Paris declared it perfect! Thank you.

Merci Beaucoup for sharing your beautiful apartment. I really enjoyed my 10 days in Paris which were made even more enjoyable by staying here

This is a nice place, clean, good beds, and complete kitchen even with a freezer. Since it was on the main street, we had to keep the shutters closed but had fans to keep us cool. We like the 18 Arr and the neighborhood is filled with good shops for food, patisseries, markets and cafes. The host was there soon after we arrived. We asked a question about the washing machine and she answered it quickly.

Nous reviendrons l'année prochaine, c'est pratiquement sur. Merci encore pour votre accueil et votre gentillesse.

I enjoyed my stay very much. The apartment was very quiet. The people in the building made no noise at all. The apartment is very comfortable: the bed was good and the linens were inviting. The bathroom was more than adequate and everything was very clean. The kitchen was properly equipped, and although I used neither the dishwasher nor the laundry system, it is certainly nice having them there. The apartment is a perfect size for 2 people, especially if they're staying a week or more and need to do laundry and such. There's a comfortable dining area and plenty of dishes and such. It was the perfect spot for me and there are tons of shops where one can buy necessities. More than adequate heat and hot water. I wasn't at all disturbed by street noise and I would be very happy to stay there again. Thank you for a lovely stay – hope to return to this lovely apartment.
